Tennis Dance Inaugurates Fall Social Season

With over one hundred couples in attendance, the annual Tennis Ball was presented by members of St. George's Tennis Club in the Rose Room on Friday. The Modern Aires, with Verna Bruce vocalizing, played the hit tunes of the day and the ladies who turned out for the season's first semi-formal were lovely in their evening gowns. The dance set a new high in decorating and the committee had transformed the hall into quite the nicest yet. Liberal use was made of crepe streamers and lattice work in green and orange, hundreds of balloons hung from the chandeliers and the opening number of each dance was characterized on large posters which hung in various places in the room. Near the orchestra T.E.N.N.I.S. and a large replica of a tennis ball hung from the ceiling.

During intermission, cookies and punch were served, with Mrs. Thomas Eason in charge of the refreshment table. Winners of the birthday dance were Mr. and Mrs. Alf Sykes and spot dance winners were Mr. and Mrs. Al Zoravlev Mr. and Mrs. Spence McKinnon and Miss Elsie Fey and Mr. John Evans. Archdeacon and Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson lent their patronage to the dance.
