Once again it was hockey night in Georgetown last Friday, when Jim Connely and Cy Allen brought their Toronto Mayfairs into town for an Exhibition affair with the Georgetown Raiders under the leadership of Russ Bowman and Manager Perc Blackburn, and whisked them home again with a 7-5 win in their jeans. We really didn't think the Mayfairs would do as well as they did because evidently some of the team were complete strangers amongst themselves. (By the end of the third period most of them were well acquainted.) When we popped into their dressing room, Cy Allen grabbed us, tore off our coat and said "For gosh sake, get your skates on kid, we need you." This kind of treatment flustered us as we're from the 'country' and used to taking things nice and easy like: We were down to our socks before realizing someone had made a mistake. We only wanted the line-up for the evening's game, not to be in it.

After leaving their dressing room "quick-like", we sauntered into the local room just as coach Russ Bowman was saying "these are all old guys, fellows, go out and skate 'em under." We think all who were there will admit Seaford, No. 3, for Mayfairs was a bit bald, but they say you can't grow grass on a busy street, and Cy Allen proved that by using him a lot.

We felt more relaxed and at home in the Georgetown dressing room. No one in here would tear our coat off and tell us to get the skates on—they all knew we couldn't skate! Through the maze of sweaters, gear and equipment being sorted out we saw several of last year's faces, Scottie Patterson, Kent Storey, Nick Ferri, Eddie Binsell, Max and Leigh Bradbury, Ken Nash, Rene Martin, Jack Kemshead and Junior Beaumont. Some new faces trying out for the team were Fred Lever, a goalie, Charlie Currie, Art Melanson, Chappell, Bruno Scissizzi.

was the big attraction over by the sin bin. Those penalized were assured of a warm seat anyway. Both teams were guilty of poor defence play at times with goals being scored that could have been averted. Although the first period ended with Mayfairs leading 3-2, Georgetown had carried most of the play.

Going into the second, Mayfair got the jump on the local boys before they found themselves in the fog and had whipped by two more goals before Georgetown's Leigh Bradbury emerged and scored unassisted to bring the score to 5-3. But Quackenbush came right back 30 seconds later and sent another one behind Lever. At the end of the second period the score read, Mayfairs 6, Raiders 3. Only two penalties were handed out in that period, Binsell Georgetown and Seaford Mayfairs.

The fog that was over the ice surface during the game was worse during the third period and slowed some of the play down considerably. Quackenbush scored through a maze of players for his second goal of the game.

In the dying moments of the game two successive goals by Max Bradbury and Chappell gave a new lift to the fans and it looked as if the locals might really tie the score. Georgetown were pressing but just couldn't seem to put the puck into the net before the sound of the final buzzer.

There was one penalty to Seaford in the third, Georgetown goal, Lever; defence Ken Nash, Scotty Patterson; centre Max Bradbury; wings Charlie Currie, Kent Storey, Alternates — Rene Martin, Leigh Bradbury, Nicki Ferri, Junior Beaumont, Jack Kemshead, Art Melanson, Harvey Chappell, Bruno Scissizzi, Eddie Binsell.

BAPTIST CHURCH HIGHLIGHTS

The Sunday morning service was especially well attended. The pastor took for his text the words of Jesus in that great and wonderful prayer to the Father, St. John 17:4. I have glorified thee on the earth; I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. Jesus was ever devoted to His Father's will. Shortly after Jesus had started His earthly ministry He said: My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work. In the text, near the close of His ministry He was able to say; I have glorified thee on the earth, I have finished the work thou gavest me to do. At twelve years of age Jesus said; I must be about my Father's business. He was ever devoted to His Father.

In doing the Father's Will, Jesus went to Calvary's cross, willing to be our sacrifice. 2 Cor. 5:15. He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto Him which died for them and rose again. We should therefore be devoted to Him, and glorify God in our body, and in our spirit which are God's. We can only be delivered from our enemies through our faith in God. We should walk worthy of God and give Him our best.

The subject for the evening service was: Turning aside to see Exodus 3:3. Moses saw the burning bush, and turning aside to see that great sign, he heard God speaking to him. Through heeding the voice of God, Moses was chosen by God to lead the Hebrew people out of their bondage in Egypt and eventually to the promised land. Moses was not satisfied with a mere glimpse, but said; I will turn aside and see.

In the hurry of life we fail to turn aside for sweet fellowship with God. We are so busy we do not hear God's voice. Many people will say, it is good to have fellowship with God, but go not farther. They know the word of God is right but will not accept it. Many are weak in faith, lukewarm in love, powerless for service because they do not take time to turn aside and talk with God. God has many things to say to those who will listen and to those who come near enough to hear. The Apostles and missionaries heard His voice and went forth. A satisfied Christian is one who hears and knows God. Rom. 8:16. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God.

The Bible is God's message to us. Many have neglected it and it is not being read. To so many people the path of life leads along the well beaten track of worldliness. It is a happy day when men and women turn from the world to listen to God.

The Mission Circle held their meeting at Mrs. H. Siroko's home on Tuesday, with the president Mrs. A. Reeve in the chair. The mission band held their meeting on Monday with Mrs. W. Peck and Mrs. Erin Thompson leading.

The St. BYPU meeting was held Monday evening. Miss Elsie Fey was in charge.

ASHGROVE

Anniversary day at church last Sunday drew large crowds at both services. The weather was nice, the recent decoration of the church has made it much more attractive and in keeping with its purpose. For this thanks are due to Mrs. Arthur Ruddle and the ladies of the W.A. who have toiled willingly to achieve their object. The floral decorations added to the beauty of God's house. The stirring messages of both Dr. Archer Wallace and Rev. John Smith and the lovely music of the Georgetown choir and the Norval Quartette all added to the perfect day.

A pleasant social time was had Monday evening November 1st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dick. Eleven tables of euchre were played, the winners being Mr. Leonard Cox and Mrs. R. J. Graham. Following this Mrs. Geo. Wingfield read an address and Mrs. Gerald Graham presented Mrs. W. J. Alexander who has moved into Georgetown with a tri-light floor lamp. Mrs. Alexander thanked everyone for the gift and a social time followed.

Miss Lamb of Stewarttown spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Marilyn.

TWO LOCAL MEN WINNERS AT WINGHAM

Prominent among the showmen at the Wingham Horse Show last Friday were two local men, Ken McMillan and Jack McKay. Georgetown Girls Pipe Band were also a feature of the show and were a hit attraction according to all reports. Ken won first in the tandem and single 15.2 and under; and second in the team, single 15.2 and over and gentlemen's turn-out. Jack placed third in 15.2 and under, fourth in team and fifth in tandem.

At a recent police department auction in St. Louis a boy bid 20 cents for a boy, so, and got it.
