Along the Boards

with Wheldon Emmerson

After handling Georgetown a 6-4 defeat a week ago last Monday night, the highly rated (by themselves too) Toronto Meteors packed their gear and headed home. Bill Thoms did admit, however, before he departed, Georgetown was the toughest team they had encountered so far this year. Of course, it was the locals' third defeat in as many starts, and no one was too happy about it. "Anyway," exclaimed Thoms, "we are willing to meet you on our home ice at Lindsay on Saturday, November 20th providing your club is agreeable."

The local club was agreeable and so it was Saturday here we come on Saturday night.

During the locals' week leaving the arena at 5 p.m., we managed to get the afternoon off, and arrived there at around 2 p.m. We wanted to make sure we didn't miss a ride. As we had a little time to spare we sat on the arena steps and intended to whistle to all the pretty girls going by. Never got a chance to whistle. Seven teenagers went by, six sweet looking old ladies, 34 taxis, and Jimmy Valentine on a motor cycle.

Finally the players arrived, and then the cars. It wouldn't be long now. There was a short delay until a car trunk was found that would hold the sticks and big bags. Lorne Peters shouted "Throw the big bag in my trunk." Why they picked on us we don't know, but we had a terrible time to make him open the trunk and let us out. We forgave him though, as it was a little dusky at the time. At last we were given a seat and set off. Going by that corner at Norval we thought we were on a slow boat to China, however, winds changed over the bridge and we finally hit 50 bumps an hour. Sixty-three jokes later, we arrived in Lindsay. Squeezing into the press box, two chaps stuck out their hands and said "Burrows of the Daily Post," "Fitzell of the Watchman-Warrior." This didn't do it, no sir, we must out our hand and said "Emmerson of the HERALD."

With the dropping of the puck for the start of the game our penell started to work and before Meteors knew what happened, Storey had whipped in two goals just to start things going. Play was fast in the first few minutes until Meteors managed to slip in two to tie the score. Georgetown were never headed from then on, they took complete charge of the situation and checked and checked Meteor, right into the ice. At the end of the second, Georgetown were leading, 6-2. We might say Don Barrager handled the club from the bench and he certainly did a good job. In the last frame penalties were being handed out a dime a dozen. Preston was linesman and Ralph Wakelin of Lindsay was the referee, and both of them must have been trying to catch a berth on the Meteor team as they did everything they could to help them, but score a goal. There were times when both sides were playing four men a side. During the game 18 penalties and two misconducts were handed out. We cannot overlook Lever's work in goal. The last two games, he has played outstanding hockey. Everyone said after the game he looks more like Rhodes every game. Time and again he made beautiful saves.

Getting back to the game — in the dying moments the Meteors pulled every string they knew in order to even tie the score. Cleary was pulled and even with six forwards they just could not pierce Georgetown's armour.

All those wishing to take part in the Hockey War (it's been going on for years) between Acton and Georgetown, be at the Georgetown Memorial Arena Thursday night as Acton and Georgetown tangle for the opening game of an Intermediate B Group. Weston will play Oakville the same night. This is the set up as we get it. Georgetown, Acton, Weston and Oakville will play Intermediate B hockey at Georgetown two nights a week, each game a double header. The four teams will play off for the "Sheeny" Tost Memorial Trophy donated by the Georgetown Board of Parks Management. All games will be played in Georgetown as none of the other teams have artificial ice.

Manager Perc Blackburn, though unable to get to Lindsay Saturday night, wanted Georgetown to win even by one goal. Well the boys went one better Perc and won by two goals.

Anyone with a car wishing to go to Guelph Wednesday night to see the locals take on Guelph Senior B Club call Perc Blackburn, Don Barrager or Bruce MacKenzie. Even if you have room for only one or two players don't hesitate. The ex-

ASHGROVE

The November W.I. meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon the 16th at the home of Mrs. Cliff Hunter with twenty-one members, four visitors and seven children present. The president, Mrs. Thos. Giffen, opened the meeting with the ode. Roll Call was answered with a time saving hint. A letter was read from England thanking the Institute for parcels sent. All were in favour of sending a basket of food for a needy family at Christmas time through the Neighbourhood Workers Association also that the Institute donate a dozen tables to the new Esquering Community Hall at Stewarttown. The motto was well given by Mrs. Clau'e Picket. Mrs. Francis Thompson sang two beautiful solos followed by a splendid paper on "A Modern Kitchen" by Mrs. Fred Nurse. Mrs. Stringer conducted a quiz contest after which a social hour was enjoyed.

The euchre and dance sponsored by the W.I. and held in the new hall at Stewarttown on Wednesday evening the 17th was a great success. Forty five tables of euchre were played, winners being ladies, Mrs. J. J. Thompson of Stewarttown and Mrs. Bert Davidson of Acton and gentlemen, Howard Wrigglesworth of Georgetown and Bill Norrie of Toronto. Dancing to May's Orchestra was enjoyed after luncheon. The committee who made possible such a pleasant evening were Mrs. Hector Bird, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Clayton Wilson and Mrs. Harvey Nurse.
