HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

by Lloyd

Ah, this glorious invigorating winter weather leaves one's mind (applying this term in an abstract sort of way) fresh and clean; free from all thoughts of school but bulging with thoughts of Christmas. "What'll I buy Pop and Mom and brother and everybody?" are questions which run through every High School student's intricate network of grey cells, mine included. It is, to use alliteration for the benefit of Mr. Lambert, a perplexing problem. (Hard to say, ain't it). But somehow we will survive Christmas with Dad happy over his flashy tie, Ma just loving you for buying her that gorgeous box of chocolates, and everyone thanking you and saying "Just what I always wanted". It really is a joyous occasion though and is only added to by the thought that school is through this Wednesday, until the new year. This is much appreciated by all parties concerned.

Speaking of parties the school is to have their annual do Wednesday morning. In each room each pupil draws the name of a fellow student and is to buy him or her a present not exceeding 25c in price. Jack Bettke and George McClure, two loyal first formers appointed themselves to get the Christmas tree. Their motto "Beg, borrow or steal, we always get the Christmas tree." A case of apples, etc. is to be bought for the children to munch on during the movie, pictures which incidentally are to be shown. This interesting bit of entertainment (ha, ha) is to take the place of the acts which are usually put on by each form. I say off! Think these acts even if they are cute, at least are original and quite as enjoyable as the usual ones. They are to be held in the Department of Education, purely for educational purposes. Last night in "Tim" and "Tom" an other, etc are to be held.

Christmas is the time of the year when people all over the world rejoice with their family and friends. May this Christmas prove to be a joyous one and the New Year bring an abundance of good health and prosperity to all.

STONE SCHOOL CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The pupils of S. S. No. 16 gave a most enjoyable concert Saturday evening, under the able direction of their teacher, Mrs. H. Barber, assisted by Mrs. Jack Lindsay, with the piano teacher, Mr. Buchanan accompanying. The Stone School was nicely decorated and crowded with parents and friends who enjoyed the operetta and individual number put on so well by the children. A piano solo by Mrs. Dorothy Barber and a vocal number by Mrs. M. Williams were appreciated. At the close of the concert Mrs. Barber made his personal appearance and presented gifts to the pupils.
