MEMORIALS

BLAIR — In proud and loving memory of a dear daddy, Pfc. Reginald R. Blair, PPCLI, killed in action in Italy, December 20, 1944.
Someday I'll understand.
—Lovingly remembered by his little son, James Reginald Blair in England.

BLAIR — In proud and loving memory of our dear son and brother, Private Reginald R. Blair, PPCLI, killed in Italy in while in action, December 20th, 1944.
Just four years ago today,
Our darling son and brother was called away;
He never shunned his country's call,
He died beloved by all.
Somewhere up there we know he is,
Please God just let him know

That we do not forget you, Reg. We love and miss you so.
—Proudly and lovingly remembered by Mum, Dad, Sisters and Brother.

DODGSON — In memory of our sister, Alice Walker Dodgson, who died on December 19, 1938. Her dear bright eyes and cheerful face
Are so pleasant to recall;
She had a loving word for each
And died beloved by all.
—Fondly remembered by her brother, and sister, Hazel and George.

DODGSON — In loving memory of a dear daughter, Alice Emily Dodgson, who passed away December 19th, 1938.
The depths of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well;
And while she sleeps a peaceful sleep
Her memory we shall always keep.
—Always remembered by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walker.

MARCHMENT — In memory of my mother, Mrs. Richard Marchment, who died on December 30, 1942.
Surrounded by friends I am lonesome,
In the midst of my joy I am blue,
With a smile on my face I've a heartsche,
Longing, dear mother, for you.
—Ever remembered by daughter, Ethel and grandson Morley.

REID — In memory of my niece, Jean Reid, who died December 21st, 1944.
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all,
And though the tears be many or few,
All are filled with remembrance of you.
—Always remembered by Aunt Ethel.

MARCHMENT — In loving memory of Mrs. Richard Marchment, who passed away December 30th, 1942.
Now is the time we miss her so,
She was so loving and so kind
Wherever she did go,
The angels will cherish her
In Heaven Christmas day,
For she is content there
Day after day.
—Sadly missed by her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Codlin.

REID — In memory of Jean Reid, who died on December 21st, 1944.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear Jean,
That we do not think of you.
—Ever remembered by Mother, Father, Sister and Brother.

REID — In memory of Jean Reid, who died on December 21st, 1944.

CARDS OF THANKS
HITCHCOCK — The family of the late Mrs. William Hitchcock wish to thank friends for their many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy extended to them in the death of a loving wife and mother.
KENNEDY — Mrs. John Kennedy and Mrs. Robert McPherson thank the kind friends and neighbours for their words of sympathy, cards and acts of kindness shown them before and since the death of their brother and the sudden passing of their sister last week. Special thanks to Miss Bessie White and Mr.

Bleuy Motterhead for the loan of cars and to Rev. Alex Calder for his comforting words of sympathy.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR KNOX CHURCH CHILDREN
The annual Christmas party for children of Knox Presbyterian

Church Sunday School was held last Friday. The ladies of the church first served supper to the children and teachers. A program of vocal and instrumental solos, plays and recitations followed with Rev. Alex Calder acting as chairman. Gifts were later distributed from the Christmas tree.
