BAPTIST CHURCH HIGHLIGHTS

Why Give Gifts was the theme of the Christmas message for Sunday morning. This is a time of giving to relatives and friends. A time when we send missionary and welfare boxes.

Why do we make these gifts? Over 1900 years ago God gave to the world His Son. When Jesus started his ministry he was continually giving. When he found people hungry he fed them. When they were lame he gave them strength. When they were in sorrow he comforted them. He at last gave His life on the cross that we might have life. The multitudes were in need of a Saviour, so Christ gave himself to save the lost.

Love answers the—Why Give gifts? Jesus gave until it became a sacrifice, because he loved humanity.

No person can be charitable in giving what he can spare. The gift will not be much if it is not prompted by love. 1 Cor. 13:3. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned and have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

The evening service subject was Looking for Jesus. The Israelites had been looking for their deliverer. The prophets told of his coming. It seemed to them that he would never come. Their thought was, if he would only come and roll back the clouds and usher in peace.

At last the day came when Jesus was born. But when he came they rejected him. They expected their deliverer to be a king with power. He came out of the ivory palaces into a world of woe. Many failed to recognize Him as their Messiah, therefore they were not delivered from their trouble.

It is the same today. The world is in trouble and does not know the way out. The way out will not be found until the world knows Christ. He alone can satisfy. May we come back to Him with a greater devotion and give Him more of our time, that we may so live, that some will say to us: Sir, we would see Jesus.

The BYPU on Monday evening arranged a special Christmas service with a fireplace and the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. Roy Horne gave the topic and made the Christmas story live anew.

The Sunday School Christmas programme was held on Tuesday evening. Supper was served at 6.15. The programme followed after which gifts were distributed. A very fine evening was enjoyed with a good attendance.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. M. Bruyns, Jr., and children are here from Calgary, Alberta, to spend the holiday season with their parents on Charles Street.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT

The annual Christmas concert presented by the children of St. George's Sunday School drew a large crowd to the church basement on Friday evening. Fred McNally, a former superintendent of the Sunday School, was chairman for a program which included plays, songs and carol singing by the various classes. Mrs. A. E. Dawson accompanied the musical numbers on the piano. Mrs. James Patton playing for the beginner's class who sang "Teddy Bear's Picnic." A medley of Christmas carols was played as a piano duet by Marilyn Bell and Elleen Prust. Santa distributed presents to all the beginners and to those in each class who stood highest in the year's work. There were also special presents for Walter Sargent, Violet Louth, Byron Bedell, Bill Hewitt and Sunday School superintendent Harvey Dewhurst.

Prior to the entertainment Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson was asked to present attendance scrolls to those having perfect attendance. These were awarded to:

First year: Jean Bedell, Martin Armstrong, Gwen Davis, Margaret Eason, Shirley McNally, Linda Mino, Helen Chaplin, Sandra Stiles, Ann Bedell, Paul Armstrong, Karen Norton, Doris Chaplin, Lillian Shepherd, Suzanne Lewis, Michael Armstrong.

PRESBYTERIAN YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE CANDELLIGHT SERVICE

The Young People's Union of Norval and Union Presbyterian Churches were host to several visiting groups at a special carol service on Sunday evening in the Norval Church. Each of the visitors took a portion of the service, which included solos by Jean Chester, Moira Kelly, Viola Bridgen and Jack Harston and a duet by Ismay Kean and Viola Bridgen. A male choir from Norval-Union, a reading by Marie Ritchie, and the singing of several Christmas carols completed the service. Groups taking part were from Norval-Union Presbyterian, Norval United, St. Paul's Church of England, Norval, Knox Presbyterian, Georgetown, Ashgrove United and Hutonville United Churches. The presidents of all groups were on the platform. A collection was taken for the United Emergency Fund for Britain. A social hour and refreshments followed the service.

NEXT WEEK'S HERALD WILL BE PUBLISHED THURSDAY AFTERNOON.
