SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT IN THE GLEN

The Sunday School of Glen Williams United Church presented their Christmas concert in the Town Hall on Tuesday, December 21st. The large audience enjoyed a program of carols, songs and recitations. Rev. F. J. Dunlop was chairman and Mrs. J. Addy played for all the musical numbers, the Sunday School showing their appreciation by presenting her with a bouquet of flowers. Included in the program was a song "Teddy Bear's Picnic" by Maureen Hepburn and comic solos by the Wheeler brothers. Santa Claus distributed gifts at the close of the program.

A Kansas farmer left his entire estate to his horses, and Old Dobbin won't kick about that.

C.G.I.T. CANDLE LIGHT SERVICE AT UNITED CHURCH

A good congregation attended the C.G.I.T. Candle Light Service held in the Georgetown United Church on Sunday evening December 26th. The members of the local C.G.I.T. group entered the church carrying lighted candles and singing the processional hymn "Angels from the realms of glory". An arrangement of candles designed to light the font of the church auditorium were lit by Misses Patsy Day, Marjorie Ballantine, Leona Conn and Betty Mudge.

The worship was conducted by C.G.I.T. leader Mrs. C. Buck, who was assisted by three readers, Misses Joan Harrison, Lois Thompson and Jane Milne, who read the Christmas Story in Scripture and poetry. A group of girls from the Cedarvale School accompanied by Mrs. H. Wrightworth sang "Shine Out Christmas Light" and Misses Joan Harrison and Patsy Vance sang the hymn "Infant Holy, Infant Lowly" accompanied by Miss Lynda Stewart.

After a message by Rev. J. M. Smith entitled "Building Character" and emphasizing three Christian virtues, Love, Truth and Purity, a group of five girls, Misses Patsy Vance, Marilyn Bell, Betty Lou Davis, Mary Jane Arnold and Myrna Crawford participated in the candle lighting ceremony. Each girl offered a word of explanation regarding Christian training as she lit her candle and prayed for response was made by the congregation.

The girls left the church singing the Christmas carol "The First Nowell" as a recessional hymn after having their candles lit by either one of their two leaders, Mrs. C. Buck and Mrs. E. Armann.

COMBINED PRAYER WEEK SERVICE IN NORVAL

The three Norval churches, Presbyterian, United and Anglican are uniting this year for a single service to mark the Week of Prayer in that community. The service is planned for Monday evening, January 3rd in St. Paul's Church of England and a special speaker will be present in the person of Rev. Carmine De Catanzaro, M.A., B.D., a lecturer on the teaching staff of Trinity College, Toronto. The three churches plan to hold similar services in future years, moving to each church in rotation.
