It was the night before New Year's Eve OR If you can't read it try playing it on your piano

Through the schedule the four teams battled for a trophy shiny bright And played with sheer determination a double header every night.

Though the crowd was sometimes disillusioned as to who was playing who, They still went down and cheered their heads off for the players that they know.

When the play-offs finally started and the Raiders found their pace With nonchalance they eliminated Oakville from the race, While Weston turned on Acton with vengeance, force, and hate

And so it was the poor old Tan-ners were the next to get the gate.

But now was left within the league only two contenders for the cup, And of these two to battle—which from the cherished bowl would be allowed to sup.

Oh to those of you who missed the finals Or didn't have the price; GEORGETOWN won the trophy By beating Weston twice. (W.E.)

EVERYTHING IN GENERAL

Bridgeport's entry into the OHA was accepted and they are grouped with Georgetown, Acton, Weston, Oakville and Fergus. The Bridgeport club were in an independent grouping, the North Waterloo Senior Rural Hockey League which dissolved in order to get Bridgeport out of the league. The Toronto paper have given a lot of publicity to this particular league, as legal action is being taken by league officials against Bridgeport for improper conduct, illegal use of players, and infractions of the rules. Bridgeport are claiming all trophies. They were only defeated once in eight games.

ardon, Leigh Bradbury and Jack Wilson are looking after the Juniors this year. They tell us they have some real stars in the making and would provide some good hockey for the fans. The Industrial League will be starting their schedule soon, and then of course, Acton will be playing against Georgetown in the Intermediate ranks.

Who was the hockey player who took the two fair daneski skating New Year's afternoon? What are you trying to do, fella, spoil it for the rest of the single guys? Couldn't have been the same two you had at the dance the other night Harvey? Or could it? Maybe you are thinking of taking up the plumbing trade?

Who was the local hockey player who ate all the "dill pickle" off the table at a house party after the Firemen's Ball? What made it worse was Ethel had just finished telling the hostess that Del didn't like dills when "Dilly" was caught in the act taking the last dill from the dish. "Boy I'll bet you got a goin' over the next day "Dilly."

Heard Jack Royston of Acton saying at the meeting last Sunday "Why, when people phone us to offer their cars for the away games or first statement is: "if you haven't a '49 model bring up."

Who was the staunch hockey supporter who was found parked in a prohibited place and was told by the police if he parked there any longer it would cost him and his girl ten bucks each? Heard the next day he was telling some of the boys at work it was worth it.

The regular schedule opens here on Thursday night, January 6 with Bridgeport being the visitors.

The Sheeney Test Memorial Trophy will be presented to Georgetown at the first Weston-Georgetown game here.

Weston and Oakville are the only two teams in A Hockey in this group, the rest being Intermediate B.

Georgetown is in for a lot of hockey this winter as Walt Rich-great missionaries. A very fine time was enjoyed at the watch night service. The earlier part of the evening was spent in a social way. The last hour of 1948 was spent in worship. At twelve o'clock all sang Happy New Year to you. After a hearty handshake, all agreed that we had a happy and profitable time.
