- This year, again, Georgetown is in for a fine season of hockey. The Raiders are grouped with Acton, Ferguson, Bridgeport, Weston and Oakville in a classy O.H.A. Intermediate league which last year produced an "A" championship (Georgetown) and a "B" finalist. (Acton).
- Every game is worth seeing and by supporting the team loyally you not only treat yourself to a good evening of sport, but are backing a grand bunch of players and an executive which gives liberally of their time to foster hockey. . . . and you are helping to pay off the debentures which made artificial ice possible in Georgetown.
- See you at the opening game . . . Thursday — Raiders vs. Bridgeport.
