Chatting... With Anne

We have had something to talk about these days. The weather! It has been almost spring like. Two of the boys — Donnie Brown and Doug Weir saw two robins. This is most unusual for January. I expect we shall have our full quota of cold weather before the winter is over.

Mrs. Goodier, who passed away last week, will be missed from the community, especially for her activities in the church.

Last week the Editor had a few remarks about the Toronto papers. It is a fact that they think nothing is worth printing unless it borders on the dramatic. We find from experience, that people like to read everyday news in an everyday way.

Wonder why the Toronto youngsters think they have to have so much recreation. Reading an account of a battle between two sets of youths, I find the only explanation they gave was that there was nothing else to do. Wonder if they ever tried going to church on Sundays or reading a good book, or going for a long hike in the country. Just what they think should be provided in the way of entertainment they do not say. There are so many things to do in this world, I find never a dull moment.

We have but to mention that we might leave Georgetown, and our telephone goes mad. This is all I have to say. We like the town, we like the people, but for reasons of health the country seems to be the spot. However, it will be quite some time before we leave.

Rest is not quitting the busy career.

Rest is the fitting of self to its sphere.

Tis, loving and serving, the highest and best.

Tis onwards unswerving, and that is true rest.

Now I'll have the time to find a place.

And sit me down full face to face With my better self that stands no show.

In this daily life that rushes so, It might be then that I'll see my soul.

Stumbling ahead to a shining goal I might be nerved by the thought sublime.

When I have the time.

Someone had said that Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson's Sunday morning sermon was the best they had ever heard. Unfortunately I wasn't at service on Sunday morning. In the last sixteen years there have been many interesting sermons from our rector. Perhaps if some of the youngsters in Toronto who think there is nothing to do on Sunday would spend an hour or two listening to some good men like our own Archdeacon Thompson, they would get a different picture of the way to live. Once you have a fixed purpose in life, then you have no difficulty putting it in the time.

He does not ask That crowds so through the church That standing room be at a price; He only asks that as he speaks They may see Christ.

It seemed fitting that Georgetown should win the Sheeny Tost trophy. We all loved to see Sheeny play hockey. When we hear about wars and rumours of wars, we think of all the fine young men who were lost. There isn't much victory for the ones who lose their loved ones.

Country driving this year has been better so far, than I and many of the farmers have known it for many years. Being still pretty much of a home loving body, I feel that I must see my Mother at least once a week. It sort of keeps me on an even keel.

She's dainty, neat, and oh so sweet!

My Mother.

From silvery head to busy feet, Wee mother

With understanding eyes of gray That see our faults—and look away Thus chiding more than words can say.

We love her.

Her grandchild climbs upon her knees

Now Nanny sweet, a story please. So silver head and head of gold Blend softly while a tale is told.

Her patient smile is dear to me Her girlish laugh rings merrily Her heart is ever young and gay, Though time and grief have passed her way

And so each night I humbly pray God spare her.
