the 'water shortage' notices of last summer to be, seen on various Hydro poles. The sewers are coming into use, new houses are being built and plumbing is being improved. All this calls for more water and plenty of it, if the town is to continue to krow in homes and industry. It seems to me that sooper or later, we must settle down to the idea of increasing our water sources. It might cost us more but I sure would like to use a hose for the extra money.

Many of us have had a let to say on the old GRC's efforts in the last few years. That group has resigned and a new Recreational Council is to be organized on a community basis. Now is our opportunity to say what we have to say while the organization is being planned, and something can be done. It is a community undertaking and everybody who has ideas on the subject has Suntested and Sunworthy wall- a right and a duty to present their paper sample books.
