BAPTIST CHURCH HIGHLIGHTS
Owing to the pastor's illness, Mr. N. McLeod of Brampton spoke at the morning service, using as his subject, Can a man be a Christian today? He took as his text; John 21:22. Jesus said to Peter; If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee, follow thou me. Christ spoke of his disciples on other occasions saying, follow me. His precious promise is, Lo I am with you always. Christ came into this world to save others. The cure for the sins of this world is Christ. Life insurance is alright for this life, but we must have life assurance with Christ for life eternal. Thus Christ's command, follow thou me. At the evening service, Rev. A. Luck of Cheltenham preached. The lesson was found in Matthew 11:16.

Days of sadness will come o'er us, Friends may thing the wound" is healed, But they little know the sorrow That lies within the heart concealed. — Ever remembered by mother and brothers, Glen Williams.

50. Many of us today do not like chastisement, but we see here that Jesus chastised. In verses 28-30 Jesus said; Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light. Many people today think of a yoke as a burden.

The world says, the Christian life is a burden. Why read our bibles? Why pray? Why observe Sunday? They are burdens I will not carry. Students feel getting an education is a burden. It is unless they see the future. Just so with the person who desires to live a Christian life. It is a burden if they leave Christ out. But Christ says, my yoke is easy and my burden is light. This is true if we let Christ have his way with us.

The quarterly business meeting was held on Wednesday evening in the Sunday School room. Very encouraging reports were received.

The Women's Society held their meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Thompson.

WOLF, FOX SHOT BY NORVAL HUNTER
A grey wolf was shot on Friday in the Norval district by Mac Watson, who also bagged a fox on the same hunting trip. It is rarely that wolves are reported in this district, although foxes have been so prevalent that county council recently passed a by-law providing payment of a bounty on any shot in the county. A wolf bounty is provided by the provincial government.
