Her dear bright eyes and tender smile,
Her loving heart that knew no guile,
Deep trust in God that all was right
Her joy to make some other bright;
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do;
No thought of self, but of the other,
I know he said "Well done, dear mother."

As we treasure the memory of you.

Gone, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
—Fondly remembered by his family.
