"More of our friends have Telephones—and we all use the Telephone more!"

DAY AND NIGHT, seven days a week the telephone is at your service. Quickly and easily it keeps you in touch with everything and everybody everywhere. There are 400,000 more telephones and two million more calls a day than there were three years ago. And service is getting better all the time.

In three years, however, costs of important raw materials for telephone lines and cables have risen sharply. Copper prices have doubled, zinc and lead prices tripled. Yet, up to now, despite rising costs on all sides, there has been no increase in the basic telephone rates established 22 years ago. Few things give you so much real value at such low cost as your telephone.

We've broken all records but there are still orders we haven't been able to fill. We will keep right on working and building to make your telephone service a bigger bargain than ever—to continue to provide more and better service at the lowest possible cost.

CHATTING
 by M.H.B.

Maybe we're prejudiced, but it seems to us the most discussed subject this week — after the weather, that is — must be "chicken-pox." It's bowling over the young fry in Grades 1 and 11, like ninepins. We have one motley and very itchy individual in our household (cross our fingers for the other "chick"), whose one consolation is being told how many of her friends are in the same plight, and if their spots are as numerous, and in the same places as hers. It's a most uncomfortable affliction tho — and the little sufferers, AND their mothers, have our sympathy. May the epidemic soon be on the wane.

To refresh ourselves with a prettier subject — happened to glance in at Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Swackhamer's picture window while on our way to town this week, and saw the most beautiful showing of African Violets. Mrs. Swackhamer has about fifty plants, both purple and pink, fairly bursting with bloom. How does she do it? Well may you ask, if you have the same luck as we, with the violets. Mrs. Swackhamer tells us most people water the plants too much. That the violets should "never go to bed with wet feet" — in other words, don't let the violet stand in unabsorbed water after 4 in the afternoon. Another important don't was "No direct sunlight," but give it lots of light. A window with a northern exposure is ideal. Sounds easy enough, doesn't it? We took another look at those purple and pink beauties in her window and decided — for the umpteenth time we'll try growing some ourselves.

With the season's biggest snowfall blanketing the country hereabouts, Floria and Bill McNally and Ruth and Paul Barber couldn't have picked a better time to motor to Florida. They left last Friday afternoon and will be away for around two weeks. The southern holiday comes at an opportune time for Ruth, who just recently broke her right wrist. Olive Moyer and Mrs. Mervyn Cook are in charge of Phoenix House during Ruth and Paul's absence.

We know a great many people will be glad to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Bufe Bradley's little daughter, Clare, has fully recovered from her attack of osteomyelitis, which she contracted last December. Clare has been back to school for several weeks now, and her wonderful recovery was due in large measure to the new "wonder drugs" administered at Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children.

In the same family, Clare's grandfather, Mr. Stafford Groat, is quite ill in Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto. Mrs. Groat says the new hospital is beautiful, with every comfort and convenience you could imagine, including a "lodge" just across the road for the convenience of relatives and friends who wish to be near the hospital for any length of time. Also in Sunnybrook is Eddie Francis, who was formerly a patient in the Christie Street Hospital.

Just heard that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wray's daughter, Mrs. Robert Wicks, and baby Brian, have moved to Oakville, where her husband is employed. Shoppers will miss her from the Georgetown 5c to $1.00 Store.

Also missed from Main St. is Kathy Thompson, who has taken a position in the office of Alliance Paper Mills Ltd. However, we'll still see her occasionally, for she comes back to Licata's for the Saturday rush.

Reading the Erin Advocate this week we noted Anne Watkins is now social editor and book-keeper at the Advocate. She has started her "Chatting With Ann" column this week, which we're sure people of Erin and district will enjoy.

Margaret Golden is the latest addition to the office staff of Smith and Stone Ltd.

Mrs. Fred McNally entertained her "Club" to a chicken dinner at her home last Friday night. After the delectable dinner, the girls had an enjoyable evening playing cards.

On Sunday Mrs. Bob Goldham and baby daughter Patsy, flew here from Chicago to stay with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goldham for a few weeks, until their house in Toronto is vacated. Bob, playing this season with the Chicago Black Hawks, is Georgetown's one and only gift to big time pro hockey, and it's proud we are of him.

Mr. and Mrs. Perc King and family have moved into their new house on Victoria Crescent. Perhaps some of you, like ourselves, haven't been able to keep up with all the new housing developments in town. For instance, we didn't know, until we acquired,

Helen Walker and Dennis O'Keefe feel that "two's company" when Mische Auer intrudes on them in "Drewster's Millions" at the Roxy Theatre.

ASHGROVE
 Begorra! and the top of the morning to all of yez in honour of the seventeenth of March which belongs to St. Patrick himself.

Mrs. Arthur Ruddell was hostess for the March WMS meeting last Tuesday with the president, Mrs. C. B. Dick opening in the usual way. Devotional was given by Mrs. Frank Wilson followed by a solo from Mrs. John H. Hunter. Roll Call was answered by a fact in regard to an early Christian. The last chapter in the Study Book was given by Mrs. Bruce Bridgen assisted by Mrs. Ward Brownridge. At the close of this meeting some items of W.A. business were discussed and a tea is being planned for the latter part of April.

The W.I. held a very successful euchre and dance in the community hall at Stewarttown on March 9th. Thirty five tables of euchre were played, the winners being first for ladies, Mrs. Frank Petch; 1st for gents, Mr. Joseph Watson, both of Georgetown; 2nd prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bouffield of Milton. Lunch and dancing to May's Orchestra was enjoyed. The President, Mrs. Thos. Giffen and the committee, Mrs. Horace Barnes, Mrs. Cecil Wilson and Mrs. Walter Brownridge deserve a lot of thanks for their untiring efforts for such a splendid evening.

Old Man Winter really showed us what he could do by his snow-storm this past week-end, then high winds and blocked roads, but it won't be long until the calendar officially says it is really spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wrigglesworth and daughter Mrs. Jas. Carney moved to Whittington 14 miles above Orangeville last Tuesday to attend the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, White. Mr. Wrigglesworth's sister, the late Mrs. John Shanks, was bridesmaid at their wedding, 50 years ago.

who all the residents on Victoria Crescent were, so we pass the information on to you. They are Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dwyer and family; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pries and family; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McBride and Lorne, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Renwick and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Emmerson and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Anderson, and as mentioned above, Mr. and Mrs. Perc King and family.

Glad to hear Mrs. Florence Curtis is back home and making such a rapid recovery, after being in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph. Found the questionnaire issued by Georgetown's Recreational Committee most interesting. Hope everyone cooperates by filling it out. The planning committee are doing a very thorough job and deserve to succeed.

About thirty ladies enjoyed a St. Patrick's party last week, held by a few ladies of Group 3, United Church W.A., at the home of Mrs. V. T. Cavanagh. High prizes for crinkole and Chinese checkers went to Mrs. R. H. Wright and Mrs. Clarence Benham, respectively. Proceeds from the party will be used to help build the new Church kitchen.

A pleasant family party at his home, honoured Mr. George Herrington on his 78th birthday, and members of the family present included Mr. and Mrs. Corey Herrington, Corey Jr., and Doris (Marjie was unable to be present because of her recent attack of appendicitis). She's recuperating nicely at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Orby Herrington; Mr. and Mrs. Don Herrington; Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNally; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown and Betty Ann of Limehouse; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Kennedy and Cheryl of Toronto.

A birthday party held at her brother's home, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson's, in Milton, last week, was a complete and pleasant surprise for Mrs. Isobel Cleave. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Thompson and family, Hornby; Miss Margaret Pasmore, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Cleave and Jane, and Mr. Franklin Cleave, were present to enjoy the afternoon tea and birthday cake.
