FOREMEN'S DINNER HONOURS RETIRING SUPERINTENDENT

Ray Kercher, who has retired on pension as superintendent of the Provincial Paper Mill was guest-of-honour at a foremen's dinner in the McGibbon House last Wednesday. Attending the dinner from head office in Toronto were Messrs. Arthur Jewett, Walter Barber, John Buss, A. Reid, Gordon Hoover, and B. B. Maguire. During the evening Mr. Barber on behalf of the gathering presented Mr. Kercher with a radio.

The buses were a little late leaving the Arena last Wednesday night for Sutton. This was because it took considerable time to pack all the fans in and tie the side-comers on the side. The ones tied on the side were the fortunate ones really — they had room to breathe. Poor Blackburn and yours truly were squeezed so tight we took turns breathing. Once we heard Jack McGibbon ask Art Scott if he could go any faster as we were going to be late for the game. Art replied "Sure I can go faster, but I've gotta wait for the bus." After going some distance we knew why everyone had crowded on our bus — Mrs. Harrison had brought along a big box of home made butter tarts and as most of the fans had skipped their supper they tasted mighty nice on the trip. The only regret was we ate them all on the way up and didn't save any for coming home.

It was a relief to reach the rink at Sutton after the long trip. While waiting for the teams to appear we were entertained by the vi-ctrola. Now Sutton is really Irish and when we say Irish we mean it. They played "MacNamara's Band" first, then "MacNamara's Band" second and just to top it off, they played it again. Anyone who disliked MacNamara's Band before hand didn't like it afterwards. Just for a little variety they threw in "The Same Old Shelagh My Father Brought From Ireland". The music was Irish, the colours were Irish, their team was Irish and by the time we left we were talking with an Irish brogue. Due to some very poor administration by the OHA the referees failed to make their appearance. While two referees were being rounded up, we heard of MacNamara and his band again.

When Sutton made their appearance the building shook. Their two Block Busters Gilby and Pringle (504 lbs. of flesh, live flesh, that is) descended on the ice simultaneously. These two boys are so big the rest of the team have to wait outside the dressing room until they get dressed. They are so heavy they wear sloop skates instead of ordinary skates.

Their fans were not an enthusiastic bunch. They were quite sorry we were held up by the absence of referees. All this was a little funny to us after meeting the fans from Acton and Bridgeport. Although the trip was long, the victory, the sing songs on the bus and Mrs. Harrison's butter tarts made it an evening of fun and laughter for those who said "the heck with the buck and a half, let's go to Sutton."

EVERYTHING IN GENERAL

Who threw the mayor of Oakville out of the Arena Office during the last Oakville-Whitby game here in Georgetown? The least we can say, Spence, is you don't believe in playint politics!

Bridgeport mailed the Georgetown club a letter claiming "we wuz robbed." We would rather have them robbed than us mobbed by their fiery-feudin' fans.

Incidentally genial Don Barrager is responsible for the clean sweaters, socks, and towels the Raiders appear in every game. None have appeared as yet clad only in a towel—but what we really mean is the sweaters and socks for the game — the towels for after the game. It is mighty nice of Don to do that little job for the boys.

So far this year the fans have missed the appearance of the bands at the games. Maybe we can get them to turn out some night.

Weston and Brampton have another game to play in their round.

To the boys that sent me the funny little cartoon — thanks.

We are looking for a new name for our column for the summer sports. Anyone any ideas? If so pass them along to the editor or yours truly.
