BALLINAFAD

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Creasy and family of Glen Williams were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lawr.

Mrs. W. Wright spent a few days last week with friends in Toronto.

The WMS met for their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Jas Kirkwood on Wednesday. The Worship service was led by Beatrice Hiltz stressing the need for more cooperation and acceptance of responsibility among church members.

The roll call was answered by repeating a verse from the book of Isaiah. Plans were made to hold the Thankoffering Easter Sunday morning. It was decided to cooperate with the Evening Auxiliary in packing a bale for overseas relief, the W.M.S. donations to be left at Mrs. Kirkwood's home.

The topic entitled "Literature for the illiterates" was in charge of Mrs. Kirkwood assisted by several members, and told the interesting story of the publishing of Christian literature in China. Mrs. W. Brownridge of Ashgrove was a welcome visitor at the meeting.

Sunday School will reopen again this Sunday, April 3rd. We extend an earnest invitation to the children, young people and adults of the community to attend the classes. Time 10 a.m.

A large London, England, bank is planning to install a television system, according to a Financial Post report, which will enable the manager to inspect a screen in his London Office, a client's account stored in a county vault 2 miles away. Installation of the system is a security and economy measure. It will enable bankers to reduce costly storage space in city branches.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bridges of Brampton and Dr. and Mrs. David Waterhouse visited for the weekend in Niagara Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young.
