NO BALL IN GEORGETOWN?
It is rumoured about the sport lines around town that Georgetown will not have a baseball team this year.

To a sporting town that has the good ball players like Georgetown this is a very bad thing if true. It is further rumoured that the Ball Club in 1948 finished several dollars in the red and to cap the whole thing the baseball uniforms were taken back by the tailors.

Are we as sports fans and baseball lovers going to see our good players have to play for outside teams or remain idle for the season. What is the remedy for this suggestion? Well here it is for what it is worth. How about selling season tickets now to the Georgetown baseball public. These tickets could sell for $5.00. I know at least 100 persons who would be glad to help the team in this way. The $500. realized in this way would get the uniforms out of hock and give the club a few dollars to start the season.
How about it fellows?
