

Mexican Officers Enroute to Kashmir for U.N.

A group of Mexican Army officers, assigned to the United Nations mission for India and Pakistan as military observers in Kashmir, visit United Nations Headquarters at Lake Success, Long Island, N.Y., on their mission. Alberto Encinas Alvarez of Cuba (center), President of the Security Council, greeted the visitors.

G.R.C. NEWS

The card party last Wednesday in the Rose Room was a big success and the committee headed by Frank Parmeter did a good job of providing an enjoyable evening. It is hoped to have bridge, euchre and cribbage clubs formed and hold a series of card parties through the fall and winter season. Prizewinners at bridge were Mrs. Blake Leslie and Miss Elizabeth Leslie, second prize going to Tom. Grieve and Mike Lorusso. Cribbage was won by Mr. and Mrs. E. Lewis, second to Joe Hall and Ron Edmunds. Mrs. James Sargent won first at euchre, followed by Margaret Stark, Mrs. Harry Shortill and Mrs. Charles Hill, with J. Carney getting low score prize. Ross Hill with ticket 247 won the door prize. A Sparten mantel radio. Chairman Alex MacJaren gave a short talk on the work of the GRC at the end of the evening.

Checking on the Palestine Truce

How United Nations truce teams on the widely-scattered fighting fronts in Palestine kept in touch with each other is shown in the photo of one of the key stations in a U.N.-organized radio network covering Palestine and Rhodes. This system helped make it possible to check on observance of the truce which paved the way for the armistice agreements now in effect between Israel and Arab states.
