THE WRECK

Along her lee rail the seas boiled white,
Awash in the water low;
Over a raging gap the harbour light
Blinked through the driving snow.
The seamen fought on the slanting deck,
Fought, though hope nigh gone,
To save themselves, and the battered wreck —
Over there were the lights of home.
And man may sometimes a conqueror be,
All his skill and art employ,
But a rudderless ship on a stormy sea,
Is only a tragic toy.
A foam crested mountain, ending hope,
The ship and the seamen claims,
Specks that fade down a watery slope
On the white sea-horses' manes.
"Husband, father, our young sons three,
Now names on a polished stone,
Robbed of my all by the merciless sea."
Cried a mother, stunned and alone,
Who live by the sea, must its perils brave,
Irresistible to some it calls;
Ofttimes the end, an unmarked grave,
Midst its grey-green liquid walls.
Bill Taylor, Water Street.

MACKENZIE NEWS

It was a short summer wasn't it?

Anyway it is more seasonable weather to think about coal again. We still think it will be to your advantage to put your coal in during May and June. The miners will have their annual holidays the first two weeks in July and are likely to have a stoppage of work while they negotiate a new wage agreement. (John L. doesn't call it a strike any more, but it still means that they don't want to mine coal). It is possible that after June coal will not be readily available again until September. Let us know when it would be convenient for you to take delivery.

See you watering your lawn if it soon doesn't rain.

The right man for the job . . . that is the aim of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind which trains and places blind men in jobs in outside industry. And that is why employers have such high praise for their sightless employees. Here, a CNIB Placement Officer, himself blind, makes a follow-up call on a blind man employed in an electrical company as an automatic spot welder. This is only one phase of the work of the Institute, but it is an important service. Your contribution to the Institute's annual campaign in Georgetown on May 21st will help to make more blind Canadians self-supporting.

You'll feel the EXTRA POWER of the new

FERGUSON TRACTOR

3 PLOW CAPACITY

A MISER ON FUEL

Exceptionally high torque at low engine speeds often lets you use third gear when you'd expect to need second. Rugged, heavy-duty construction with drop-forged crankshaft; long-skirted, cam-ground aluminum alloy pistons; "wet" sleeves fully water-jacketed; full pressure lubrication and precision manufacture—an engine built to "take it!"

How can a tractor so compact, so easily handled, put forth so much power for the heavy jobs? Two reasons FIRST—is the Ferguson System of Linkage and Hydraulic Control. It takes advantage of natural forces in linking implement to tractor, making them one single "self-propelled" unit, and automatically increasing traction for the harder pulling. At the same time, the work of raising, lowering, carrying and controlling depth of the implement is done for you, hydraulically.

SECOND—This power, so fully utilized, is supplied by the "farm-type" overhead valve engine of Ferguson and Continental Motors design. Engineered and built for low operating cost, with longer hours of running on the many different kinds of work you'll find the New Ferguson can do.

Together, this combination gives you a farm machine with more than enough power, yet easily controlled, flexible for the wide range of farm requirements.

Whether you judge tractor performance by how easy it makes your work, the time saved, or by how much it lowers your cost of production, ask us to arrange your demonstration. You'll find the New Ferguson is the modern farm machine for you.

It's the FERGUSON SYSTEM that makes the difference!
