DONALD McNABB WEDS MILTON GIRL

At the home of the bride's parents on Saturday, May 14th, Rev. James McFaul of Oakville solemnized the marriage of Vera Lucille Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson of Milton and Donald Malcolm McNabb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm T. McNabb of Georgetown.
 The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of Alice blue with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. Miss Ruth Wilson, who attended her sister, wore a pink dress with cream accessories and a corsage of cream roses. Mr. John McNabb was groomsmen.
 Following the ceremony a reception was held at Craiglea, where the bride's mother received wearing a blue ensemble with a corsage of variegated roses. Returning from the reception to her home, the bride donned a suit of dusty pink with navy accessories and the happy couple left for a motor trip through the Eastern States. After July 1st they will reside in Hamilton.

Business Meeting for Nassagaweya Busy Bees

Mrs. Stan Robinson gave a report of the officers' conference held in Guelph at the May meeting of Nassagaweya Busy Bees Institute which was held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Davenport. She told of the W.I. Scholarship Fund. Members were asked to make contributions in a lump sum as a project for this year. Any area contributing $3000 would be assured of a scholarship for a W.I. or Junior Farmer girl who qualified in that district. She mentioned that the Institute is not a money-making group but has as its purpose the education of members to be better home-makers and country-women. There is no such thing as an undesirable member — it is up to the group to make her a desirable one. Each month's program should be of interest to everyone present.
 The vice president, Mrs. J. J. Kennedy, was in charge and roll call was answered by a household hint. Many useful laundry hints were given, such as adding salt and butter to starch made by pouring

 Mrs. Roy Lindsay gave the Good Cheer report and drew attention to a child in a neighbouring district needing extra cheer. Mrs. Tuck gave current events. She was elected home economics convener for the year and Mrs. Alex Pringle for current events. Mrs. Peter McLean, Mrs. Stan Robinson, Mrs. Stephen Cox and Mrs. William Service were chosen a committee to represent the Busy Bees at joint meetings of Nassagaweya institutes to plan booths for the township centennial this summer. Mrs. Stan Robinson gave a report of the last meeting at Brookville. A canvass of ladies in the community will be made to seek donations of pies for the booths. Mrs. C. E. Davenport gave a report of county hospitalization. She told of a change of plan and added benefits and also asked members to donate one pie for the opening day at Hatton Recreation Park at Lowville next month.
 New handbooks were given the executive and Mrs. Robinson explained changes made that were described at the conference. Final details of the year's programme were settled. Mrs. Nelson Ander-
