The early morning sky was bleak and looked as if it might open up any minute and drench the earth with rain. As we hurried to the Herald office to receive an assignment for the day the cool air chilled us to the marrow. Entering the office we mumbled something at his desk looked at us for a second and asked: "Tell me, young man, you look a little ruffled this morning. Late night?" "No sir, we explained, "you see they always collect the garbage in our end of town on Saturday morning early and it just happened as we finished setting our pile down on the corner the garbage truck and crew came along. We were about to throw a cigarette close by the can and I had to watch these quick-moving garbage men. The first thing we knew we were being inspected to the park — FREE! Imagine, alone in the back of the bus, we were with all the orange and grapefruit peels, ashes, rotten tomatoes, old shoes. Well sir, as we made the turn into the park we saw a sign that said "Skip the details, sorry boys, and wipe the tomato seeds out of your hair. This is Saturday, go to the ball game at 3 o'clock and get a summary. Acton and Georgetown are playing and that's usually good for a story. Through nine innings of the cold and rain we watched the local Raiders outfit, outrun, outscore, outsmart, outplay and outscore the Acton Tanners. The game might have been a little better if Acton had used a better pitching staff. Ryder and the Jordan boys were pounded heavily by the Georgetown batters. Bones Herring pitched excellent ball for the locals and held the Acton team scoreless until the first half of the eighth. Nearly everything that happens in a baseball season happened in one game last Saturday. Georgetown pulled some fancy base running, stole several bases. Harvey Chappel pulled the hidden ball trick and caught Rider off 1st base. The squeeze play was used and worked fine. Balls were called on all pitchers several times. Scotty Paterson tried working the umpire for 4 strikes but was caught. When the final out was made the locals had won 11-5.

The girls softball team the Monday is waiting for the arrival of new satin uniforms. Some of the girls on the team are Ev Robinson, Hazel Marshall, Dot Kirby, Toots Murphy, Ruth Goldham, Janet Emmerson, Joyce and Bernice Herrington and June Thompson.

The three stars of last Saturday's game were Cliff Norton for his pitching and hitting, Bones Herrington for a nice pitching chore, and last but not least, Harvey Chappel for his all-round performance on the field.

The horseshoe pitch at the park attracted a lot of people on the evening of the 24th of May. The mayor was there pitching, Rev. Calder, Alex MacLaren, Rev. Self, Bob Wyatt, Vern McCumber, the Stamp brothers, Joe and Dave, Alvin Prouse, Ken Hulme, the Ford boys, Joe Hassenknacker, Bert Craig. Another tournament is planned for the near future.

The Industrial League is going full blast. Last Friday Legion came up with a 9-7 win over the Lions and Norval took the High School 20-15 in Norval. The game in the Glen was not played due to the failure of Smith & Stone to field a team.
