SCOUT NEWS

The Committee representatives and Leaders of the 1st Georgetown Scout Troop and Cub Pack attended the Halton District Scouters' Meeting held at Blue Springs Mountain Camp on Friday evening.

The Flag Dedication Service was well attended on Sunday. Representatives of Scout groups in Burlington and Acton were present. The Scouts and Cubs led by the Georgetown Girls Pipe Band paraded from the Park to the United Church. The flags were received and placed on the communion Table by Scouters Leslie Ellis, Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson offered the prayers of dedication and presented the flags to Scouters Stuart Young and Bob Smith, and Cub Master Reg Broomhead, who in turn presented them to the Colour Parties of Scouts and Cubs. The worship was conducted by Rev. J. M. Smith assisted by Rev. Chas. Gower who read the scripture from 1 Samuel 18 1-5 and led the congregation in the Lord's Prayer. The Scout Hymn was sung as a solo by Mr. A. Tost, who was accompanied by Miss Lynda Stewart.

The Honour and Good Hunting Pennants are being held by the Bulldog Patrol and the Red Six this week.

Thanks to Pipe Major Magloughlin and his Pipe Band for their splendid performance in leading the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs parade. Thanks too, to Constable Sheffield for his cooperation.

Plans are being made for a Boy Scout camp at a convenient time in August. Anyone wishing to loan tents, please notify one of the Scouters — Stuart Young, Leslie Ellis, Bob Smith, Reg Broomhead, J. M. Smith.

Round the Bend

with Steamboat

In twos and fours they tossed the ball prior to the game. And cross the field in red and gray Fergus did the same; 'Twas just to warm their arms up before entering in the fray, 'Cause the scorekeeper charges errors to the ones who throw astray.

The umpires give the signal and Fergus take the field, And as their pitcher warms up in the box the lead-off batter kneeled.

Then all those present saw a most familiar scene, The umpire cap in hand advanced upon the green

'Ladies and Gentlemen the batter-ies for the game.' 'Twas talk the fans had heard before But after he's announced them you should have heard the roar

'Then o'er the crowd was heard an old familiar call 'That rouses baseball' passions of the 'old boys' and the kids 'Batter and Play Ball'

The game was fairly even tho' the locals trailed by one Both pitchers doing a bang-up job considering it was 90 in the sun

It was the first half of the fifth with Georgetown due to bat Coming from the bench Hoare grabbed that ole' hickory and the plate began to tap

And as Seaman gave the signal to Miller on the mound Hoare stood their patiently, his feet placed firmly on the ground.

The Fergus pitcher holds the ball and now he lets it go, And the air is shattered by the force of young Hoare's blow. And as that ball ascended each fan and player poised with suspense Wondered where would it fall beyond the bordering fence?

And while it was descending each fan and player knew If it fell beyond the fence the score would read two two

It cleared the fence by inches and fell into the weeds. At home plate his team mates gathered to compliment him on his deeds Some stories have grand endings and everything ends up Jake And some have bitter closes cause the hero didn't get the break Well this one's rather sorrowful and hard for me to write For what happened in the final innings was a terror and a fright

The boys just seemed to fall to pieces and made errors galore And before you could say Jack Robinson the score read seven four, And that's the way it ended, the locals trailed by three

All because of errors and a Fergus hitting spree. The three stars of Saturday's game were Bud Hoare for his home run, a single and his fielding; Ev Wilson for his running catch in centre field; and George Chaplin, playing his first game this year, who came through with two hits and made some nice catches deep in right field.
