GARDEN OF MEMORIES

Scent of lilac sifting,
From the garden over the way,
Memories again come drifting,
Back from a by-gone day,
Always the climbing roses,
Damp with the evening dew,
An old-world garden discloses,
Where the lilac and lavender grew,
Like ivory the cottage walls gleaming.
Honeysuckle over the door,
Trees o'er the orchard seeming,
Their snow-white blossoms pour,
Near-by the towering mountains,
Sometimes I see in my dreams;
The streamlets like crystal fountains,
That spill down their rocky seams.
Garden of memories clinging,
Scenes of the eventide,
Childhood's voices ringing,
Scattered, now far and wide,
Thoughts/unbidden come thronging Stabbing my memory through,
Filling my heart with the longing,
For that spot where the lavender grew.

MACKENZIE NEWS

Have you seen our Georgetown girls in uniform? In either the new ball club suits or the Pipe Band kilts they look very smart. It takes a lot of work to keep a uniform in good shape at all times.
(We know because we tried it once and we didn't have any lace ruffles to wash, starch, and iron.)
Now is the perfect weather, to put on that new roof you are needing. We have 3-in-1 asphalt shingles, 210 lb. per square at $8.50 per square in colours of blue, red, green and blends. Or if you prefer No.
1 5X B.C. shingles at $12.75 per square, we have a stock on hand. Get ready for the deluge that is probably coming.
See you at the Pipe Band's booster party, on Friday night.
