Each week we have planned to take in one of the scheduled games the all-girls team the Monarchs are playing but when we look in our notebook we see various other dates which make it impossible to get to the park when they are playing. By next week's issue we intend to have enough data on them and the league to make it interesting reading. Probably some of you will read the foregoing sentence, and take the wrong meaning but the data we intend to have is baseball data.

The Industrial League is going strong with the teams fairly evenly balanced. So far double-headers have been played of 5 innings each every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. Each team has sweaters or they are on the way. This all adds to the class of the league and makes the teams look a little more prosperous. A silver collection is taken at these games so if you are free any Monday, Wednesday or Friday, drop in and see a game.

up there who would like to come down here and have a few games. We know the Stamp boys would provide some excellent opposition. When one of them fails to throw a point there will be a red moon in the sky.

Mr. Self came forth with a good idea — each industry or district enter teams and then a league can be drawn up.

Really got quite a laugh out of one of the last week classified ads — it went like this: FOR SALE — Complete contents of home and horse plow, brooder, cultivator and other implements.

The local hardball gang lost another one Saturday to Waterdown 14-2. So far this year the locals have only come up with two wins, both against Acton. The players, seems to be there but they just don't seem to untrack themselves. Let's hope they hit the win column soon.

Games this week are:
 Wednesday—at Hamilton
 Saturday—at Waterdown
 Next Wednesday—at Milton

SCOUT NEWS

The Bullpog Patrol under P-L Dan Hewitt gained enough points in last week's Scouting to hold the Honour Pennant.

Thanks to Fire Chief Savings and his firemen for their kindness and patience in providing storage for the 5 tons of paper collected in the drive.

Thanks to the kind-hearted citizens who through their generosity have made parts of uniforms available for some of the boys.

The White Six under Sixer Bob Mackie won the Good Hunting Pennant this week.

Syl Apps names five points that boys should bear in mind regardless of whether they want to become star athletes or not:

1. The importance of a good sound education without which we are licked before we start.
2. Keeping in good condition — not just before a game but all the time.
3. Sportsmanship: Remember that it is just as important to be a good loser as a good winner.
4. Co-operation. A good team always pulls together, everyone gets an equal share of the glory and if there's any blame floating around they share that also.
5. We must have confidence in our ability. The man who wins is the man who thinks he can.

GEORGETOWN UNITED CHURCH

A flower and Children's Service was held in the Georgetown United Church on Sunday morning. The front of the church was banked with a beautiful array of flowers which were artistically arranged. The members of the Sunday School participated in the worship. The choir, comprised of the scholars of the junior classes (whose teachers are Mrs. A. Swackhamer, Miss Isabel Dobson, Miss Frances Deans, Mr. Robert Wyatt) sang the hymn "You bring the one Next to You". The Beginners' Class, taught by Misses Marjorie Kentner and Jean Dickie, sang the hymn "When He Cometh" and Lois Denham of the same class sang "God Sees The Little Sparrow Fall". The girls of Cedarvale School accompanied by Mrs. H. Wigglesworth sang "Jesus Son of God Most High". Ten boys from Elmer McCumber's class each recited one of the Ten Commandments, and four boys from Leslie Ellis' class acted as ushers. Misses Lynda Stewart and Isabel Dobson cooperated in the presentation of organ and piano music.

A number of boys and girls received their Robert Raikes certificates and seals which are presented for faithful attendance at Sunday School. These were: 1st year, Lois Denham, Gail King; 2nd year, Gail McGilvray, Peter Forgrave, Paulene Watson, Doug McGilvray, Ross McGilvray.

4th year — Joyce Denham, Tom Forgrave, Bruce Denham; 5th — Douglas Wigglesworth, Sue Crabtree; 7th year, Ann Crabtree.

Work is progressing favourably on the new wing being added to the church and all being well the building should be ready for use this fall. The Building Fund Committee have prepared descriptive literature which is to be mailed to members and adherents this week. A canvass to finance the new addition is to start June 19th.

It was announced that the Rev. R. H. Somerville of Erin would conduct the worship next Sunday morning. The evening service next week will be cancelled.
