Testimonial Dinner Honours Retiring Crown Attorney

Members of the legal profession, Halton County officials and other friends who had known W. I. Dick K.C. during his forty five years as Halton Crown Attorney gathered last Wednesday at the Estaminet in Burlington for a testimonial dinner to honour him on his retirement. Mrs. Mary Pettit, warden of the county, presided, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick occupied the main seats at the head table.

Mr. C. Magone, Deputy Attorney General, brought a scroll from the Attorney-General's department, signed by Hon. Dana Porter which testified to the esteem in which Mr. Dick is held. It was presented to him by Mr. Charles Readhead, only surviving member of a delegation which 45 years ago went to the Parliament Buildings to urge Mr. Dick's appointment. Mr. T. A. Hutchinson of Milton presented a scroll bearing the signature of all attending the dinner.

A presentation of a Lazy-Boy chair was made by D. O. Cameron chair was made by D. O. Cameron and E. Cleaver, two of the oldest were presented to Mrs. Dick. Justice Reed Bowlby of Hamilton and Judge A. C. Cochrane of Halton and Peel also addressed the group.

Magistrate Kenneth M. Langdon who had headed the organization of the event, thanked all those who had contributed to making it a success. Mr. Dick, in replying to the addresses and presentation, expressed the joy he had found in his associations while in office and reminisced about the years which followed his appointment on July 12th, 1904.
