PIANO RECITAL HELD IN THE ROSE ROOM

On Tuesday evening, June 21st, the pupils of Miss Helen Blackburn, ATCM, held their summer recital in the Rose Room. Miss Joan Lavole, pupil of Madame Geddesonoff, was the guest vocal soloist, and her selections which included "A Heart That's Free," "My Hero," "Villia" and "Break O' Day" were beautifully sung.

The pupils taking part were: Maureen Heppburn, Donna Timbers, Valerie Nurse, Betsy Wilson, Janice Bradley, Claudia Milne, Marjorie Roe, Joyce Denham, Sue Crabtree, Mary Barber, Marie Armstrong, Patry Wilson, Janice Baker, Marilyn Cleave, Eileen Prust, Marilyn Chapman, Margaret Sargent, Joan Bradley, Jane Milne, Ann Crabtree, Betty King, Phyllis Barker, Bernice Wilson, Eleanor Schenk, Mary Arnold and Marilyn Bell. Four other pupils were unable to attend.

Maureen Heppburn, on behalf of the pupils, presented Miss Blackburn with a beautiful bouquet of red carnations and white gladioli. After the recital a surprise treat was given the pupils by their teacher at Caldwell's Restaurant.

Loose Ends:

Looking back over the past I see there are a few things I neglected to finish up — so . . . oo, in order to end this with a clear conscience (Ha) I will speculate on the left-overs.

Forgot to mention a month or so ago (maybe 5) that a Mr. Saunders past principal (le-r al) of Northern Vocational visited the skule. He is now a member of the B.B.B. (Better Business Bureau) and was there to speak on racketeering (not the tennis variety) excessive profits, etc. One good phrase in his talk was "Honesty is success." This is a good motto for all people to remember. Of course there are plenty of successful dishonest men so that am too sides to the story . . . but enuff.

Received a further "flash" on awards: P. Barber; B. Bradley; J. Kirkwood; W. MacCormack; J. MacDonald; R. McGill; J. Nodwell; K. Scott and F. Varey are to receive their first class badge for shooting. This calls for 5 targets with a score of 75 or over. Second class badge is marksman (10 targets — 90 or over) and third class is the expert (10 targets — 95 or over). As is clearly seen the first class is not the first class but is the third and the third is first, but the second is second no matter, because the third is first and the first is third it is in the middle and could never be first or third unless it happened to be in which case (pant, pant) you and I would be a case trying to fig it out. I might add Scott received a trophy and $7.50 cash, Nodwell, a trophy and $5.00, and Kirkwood a trophy and $2.50. The trophies had been displayed in, you'll pardon the expression "the Herald Office window" before inspection. If you did not see them ask one of the fellows previously named and he'll show you it. Money for prizes came from dough sent out to be used for Kdet purposes.

There is one thing I should better off leave buried but I'll bring it forth just the same. It is the cereal I started about 6 months ago and never finished. Following is the end. Sir Reginald after rescuing Goitruide immediately rushed to the nearest parson on Goity's jet propelled broom and immediately became hitched, bridled and saddled. They lived miserably ever after.

The End:
Well sufferers this is IT. My sentence is almost up and I'm to get my new suit of clothes and my $5 dollars and walk out the gate Monday at 11:30 (after I carve my initials in my desk). O Happy Day (No relation to Leaf Coach Happy Day). As my old friend Shakespeare once retorticked "Partying is such sweet sorrow" or a free translation into every day language "I'll be glad when you're gone you rascal, I."

In case anyone doesn't know who writ this mess I'll give you a hint. In GHS my name is (here it is) 653190 (HaHa) and if you ask Mr. Blehn he might tell you it was anonymous, written by Bob Addy — that is he might. If he happened to say Robert Joseph or "Jo" of the team "Vic and Jo" yew probably might faint. I recall some queer jerk that name working in a local store mighty near the Herald Office (and my hair ain't red it's auburn and I was standing in front of a hedge when it was being trimmed I didn't fall in front of a lawn-mower).

My big ambition in life is to become a Civil Engineer and not to serve Time as some people say I oughta. I haven't changed my hobbies from last year: you remember, don't you? (Pool, girls, dice, girls, etc.)

Sniff, sniff, boy who and all that sort of rot I will not prolong the relief any longer and will end by saying "Adieu, Auf Weidersahn, Hasta Manana, Bon Jour, Bon Ami (or old Dutch Cleanser) or as we say in Greek "Goodbye forever."
P.S. I hope the writer next year

BALLINAFAD

Miss Eleanor Cook, R.N., has accepted a position on the staff of the General Hospital in Port Arthur and will leave soon to take up her duties there.

Carol and Dinah Lee Scott of Toronto have been visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of Toronto were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall.

A joint picnic of the four neighbouring schools was held at Peacock School, Friday afternoon, namely Woodside, Blue Mountain, Peacock and S. S. No 1, Erin. Ball games, races and other contests created much fun and entertainment. Everyone present was treated to pop and ice cream, also a bountiful picnic supper. One thing most appreciated was the heavy shower of rain which drove us all in the school in time for lunch. Let us have more picnics.

A sacred concert was held in the church Sunday evening under the auspices of the Mission Circle. Miss Jean Sinclair, the president was in charge of the programme which consisted of the following: Solos by Alex McDougall of Hillsburgh, Sid Speers and W. Thompson of Churchill, Accordion solos by Mrs. C. Burt of Hillsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shortill, Mrs. Norman Sinclair and Mrs. S. Sinclair, Misses Thompson sang duets, Mrs. Jesse McEnery and Mrs. Dalton assisted with readings. At the close of the programme, Rev. O. R. Fildall and Mrs. Fildall were presented with a purse of money as a parting gift from the congregation.

enjoys keeping you in agony as much as I have. That's all, folks.
