G.R.C. NEWS

The G.R.C. has made arrangements to use the YMCA swimming pool at Norval every Friday afternoon starting immediately. It is hoped that transportation can be arranged at a small charge to the boys. This week swimming and instruction will be for boys 10 - 15 and they are asked to meet at the Old Town Hall at 1 p.m. Friday.

Entries are coming in fast for the Stay-at-Home camp. The program, which will be outlined to all the committees tomorrow night is a very exceptional one indeed.

Lacrosse All-Star teams are being chosen to represent Georgetown in the O.L.A. play-offs.

Play-offs are underway in most of the lacrosse and softball leagues operated for the children of town and district. In Bantam Girls, Orioles had a perfect score of six wins and no losses while Cardinals were second with 3 wins, Eagles won 2 and Bluebirds trailed by losing all their games. The three top midget girls' teams were close, Greens winning 4 and Reds and Purples 3. Whites and Blues won one game each.

Beavers had a perfect score of 4 wins in the ladies league. Hawks won 2 and the other four teams Royals, Raiders, Credits and Leafs won one game each out of four.

Algonquins stood first in bantam boys' softball with 6 wins. Crees and Hurons had a second place tie, winning 4 and losing 4. Iroquois and Sioux each won three. The midget boys finished in a tie, Dodgers and Braves each winning 4. Yankees won 3 and tied one to come close to the winners. Tigers won 2 and tied 1, Indians won 2.

Scott's team were superior in the juvenile-Boys' league, winning 3 and tying one. Alan Gillis' team were second with 2 wins. The Glen boys won one and tied one and Norval failed to register any points.

Crees topped bantam lacrosse with 5 wins and a tie. Mohawks
