Still chatting from Lake Huron this week . . . though for a day or two it might better have been called "chattering" when the cold breezes were blowing in from the lake . . . A fireplace was much in order . . . The week-end was perfect for swimming and sun-bathing and on Saturday it was quite a large Georgetown group which assembled on the Inverhuron Beach . . . They were out on party, of course, and first came Mr. and Mrs. Al Cameron and children of Peterborough who were vacationing at Kincaid . . . Next arrived Mrs. Bill Kelly with Paddy and Ann . . . The Kellys are living for the summer on a farm near the beach with Bill, who will enter his final year in engineering this fall, works with a survey party in Bruce County . . . Kelly has been having a busy time cooking for two extra men and living in a house "without conveniences" as they say, but she is all in love with the country and thinks there is no beach just like Inverhuron . . . with which we heartily agree . . .

The last of exodus of Georgetown took to New York City occurred this week for the Lions International convention . . . Not only did several club members make the trip but the Girls Pipe Band were invited to attend as one of the feature attractions . . . To add to the thrill of the trip the band went by . . . The convention this year emphasized Canada as a Canadian. Walter Fisher of Queenston, was elected president of this huge organization . . . The Pipe Band performed at "Canada Night" in Madison Square Gardens, in a show which featured such top-notch talent as comedian, Wayne and Shuster, singer Guelle, and radio star Lorne Green . . . Included in the living party were drum majorette Olivia Durnford, Mrs. Scotty Patterson, Mr. Bruce Reid, Inez Scott, Shirley Wright, Helen Shelbourne, Marg McCallum, Eileen Kerr, Elma Stranger, Doreen Jolley, "Toots" Murray and her sister, Mrs. Art Hurst, Pauline Norton, Helen McGill, Teresa Curtis, Edna Aiken and Ruth McNally with Pipe Major Bob Magloughlin . . . Missing the trip was Mrs. Bob O'Hare, kept home by a recent appendicitis operation . . . Mrs. Magloughlin and Mrs. L. W. Don, went along as chaperones and Lion Ray Whitmee accompanied by his wife, was business manager . . . The group flew from Milton Airport on Monday morning and they will return from New York by air in the "wee sma' hours of Friday morning . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hutchinson and Mrs. and Mrs. Don Burrager motored to New York to attend the convention . . . They, with the Whitmees will stay at the Hotel Taft while the Pipe Band have headquarters at the Commodore . . . Another Lion making the trip was Alex MacLaren, who took sons Jack and Doug along for a visit with their brother Bill and family at Laurelton, Long Island . . .

The local Lions wore colourful convention garb during their stay in the city . . . This consists of white ducks, white shirt, gold tie stamped with a purple Lions head, and a jacket with a purple Lions head, and a jaunty hat, bearing the word "Lions" on the band . . . In addition to the usual convention procedure, a highlight was the ball in Madison Square Gardens, where Guy Lombardo played for dancing . . . Missing the trip was Harold McClure, originally stated as business manager . . . Harold has been ordered by his doctor to take things easy for a month and is vacationing at his summer home at Mary Lake near Huntsville . . . Not many couples can boast of as long a wedded life as Mr. and Mrs. James McNeill of town who on July 12th celebrated their first wedding anniversary . . . Mr. McNeill is a former superintendent of the Provincial Paper mill which closed down this spring and has had a long career in the paper trade . . . We wish him many more happy anniversaries . . .

Don Ford is filling in as office boy for the summer at Smith and Sons during David Barber's vacation . . . Dr. and Mrs. Burns Almie with daughters Jane and Claudia are off for a trip through Quebec and around the Gaspé . . . Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Reid are vacationing at their farm up country . . . and Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Williams are spending a month at their summer home near Perry Sound . . . which leaves Georgetown with a summer shortage of professional men . . .

An interesting lady has chosen this district as her new place of residence . . . Miss Dorothy Stone, a commercial artist, has purchased six acres of the Check Line farm property of Mrs. Barry Lawson, and is building a bungalow style home on the Norman Duxcreaux . . . The house is being built on the foundation of the old Besely residence which burned down several years ago and will be clapboard, painted light grey, with a var-coloured roof . . . Miss Stone is already known in Georgetown as the designer of the handsome Book of Remembrance which contains the names of those killed in two wars and Legion members who have since died, and occupies a place of honour in the Legion Hall . . . She has the contract for lettering all certificates and diplomas for nurses in the Province of Ontario and has illustrated a book "The Electron Microscope" written by the late Dr. E. F. Burton, former head of the U. of T. Physics department . . .

Miss Stone won the Governor-General's gold medal for highest standing as a graduate of the Ontario College of Art in 1931 . . . Three years in the mathematics and physics course at university plus teaching experience, at a private school ably fitted her to do drafting, mechanical drawing and later to be designing at the John Inglis plant during the war and she found the job a perfect combination for her two types of training . . . She excels in pastel combination for her sketches of many prominent Toronto women . . . She has taught classes in oil painting at Swansea Recreation Centre . . . intends to do landscape painting when her new home which she designed, is completed . . .

LACROSE GAMES SET FOR LOCAL TEAMS

A schedule for a four team juvenile O.L.A. lacrosse series has been arranged. Teams entered are Georgetown, Norval, Brampton, Fergus and Orangeville and the schedule appears elsewhere in this paper . . .

While Pee Wees, Bantams and midgets will not play in a series a number of games with outside teams are being arranged. On August 1st the Pee Wees will play in Fergus, August 12th, Fergus sends Pee Wee and Bantam teams to Norval for games. On August 8th, Toronto Rodens will play at Norval with the Pee Wees and Bantams. A midget game between Fergus and Georgetown is also being arranged with the probable game date August 4th . . .
