HAVE A MODERN GAS RANGE DESIGNED FOR USE WITH... Essotane

GURNEY

Our customers are enthusiastic over the new Essotane ranges. To begin with, one of these gleaming white modern ranges transforms the appearance of a kitchen. Top-of-stove cooking is easier. The burners light automatically and instantly without matches. The Essotane gas burns without dust, soot or odor. This gas is safe—non-toxic. It is clean—will not blacken pots and pans. Oven heat is accurately controlled. This means economy and uniformly successful baking. An Essotane gas range takes the drudgery out of cooking—gives you more leisure time—gives you and your family better and more wholesome meals. Let us explain to you all the special features of these modern ranges.

Inglis - Prouse Wedding in Claremont Church

On Saturday, July 23rd, in Claremont United Church, Rev. I. E. Kennedy officiated at the wedding of Gladys Alberta Prouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Prouse of Claremont, and John Inglis of Glen Williams. It was a double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white pearl satin fashioned on Princess lines. Her floor length veil was caught with a hair of white flowers and she carried a bouquet of red roses. Her sister, Miss Isobel Prouse of Toronto was bridesmaid, wearing a blue floor-length gown of white flowered organza and carrying yellow flowers. The bride's niece, Nancy Jean Bell of Uxbridge was flower girl, wearing a floor-length blue tulle and carrying a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mr. Gordon Inglis was his cousin's groomsmen. The bride's cousin Miss Muriel Mason of Port Hope sang "Because" during the signing of the register.

At a reception for fifty guests, the bride's mother received wearing a gray checked jersey. For a honeymoon trip the bride chose a yellow ensemble with black accessories. On their return the couple will live in Georgetown.
