—Try 'em. Reta's chicken sandwiches are tasty. Thursdays and Sundays, dinner problems are solved with hot chicken sandwiches. And any day you are welcomed at Reta's where sandwiches, ice cream, soft drinks are always available. Maple Ave. and 9th Line corner Telephone 230.

GLEN NOW LEADS SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Glen Williams took first place in the Men's Softball league last week when they defeated Alliance 20-6. Cheltenham Concrete, who are close challengers lost a game by default to Meadowglen, who were beaten 24-5 by the Legion earlier in the week. Smith & Stone eked an 18-17 win over Alliance. Other scheduled games were postponed until August.

In case of postponements, team managers are asked to phone either George Alcott, 439M or Rev. J. L. Self, 3822, three hours before game time and also to advise the opposing team. Violation of this may mean a default for your team.

MACKENZIE NEWS

Would you like to know a way of keeping the heat out of your home?

15 bags of granulated rock-wool at a cost of $1.30 per bag or a total of $19.50 will insulate the attic of a house, size 24x28. This is a job you could do yourself and have comfort during the hot weather. You will also get the benefit of cash money saved on fuel during the winter months.

See you at the closing exercises of the summer school.

ASHGROVE

Well! We are right into the harvest now. Grain crops are not very heavy but we are thankful for what there is, raspberries have been wonderful and gardens and lawns are looking so much better since the rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dainard of Kirkland Lake spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham.

Miss Lufe Reed of Toronto holidayed for a week with her sister, Mrs. George Wingfield and family.

Mrs. Edward Richardson of Laural and Miss Jean Richardson of Toronto were Monday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Belloddy.

Mrs. George Nurse spent the week-end with friends in Toronto.

Mr and Mrs. Archie Watson of Toronto were Saturday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Marilyn.

FIELD DAY, BIKE RACES FOR STAY-AT-HOMES

Yesterday the afternoon program for the Stay-at-Home Camp took the form of a field day, ending with bicycle races. The children were divided into six teams of ten members each, the boys taking the names of countries in the Empire, and the girls, the provinces. Canada and Prince Edward Island proved to be the winners.

Beverley Davis and Claire Bradley were winners in the girls bike races. Winners for boys were Doug Richardson, John Jefferson, Terry Schisler, John Mileham, Richard Sienko and Kerry Jepson.

STEWARTTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawson and son Donald and Mrs. Lawson, Sr., spent Sunday in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Will Lawson.

Mrs. Mary Bally visited in Toronto over the week-end.

Visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grant were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smethurst and Mr. Douglas McEachern of Toronto; Mrs. A. Paul of Sudbury; Mrs. H. Jenkinson and Miss Frances Jenkinson of Chapeau.

Mr and Mrs. Lloyd Robinson of Acton spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Corey Herrington.

Ruby Tennant, Ann Humphreys, Janie Henderson and Jack Mileham have been attending the Stay-at-Home Camp in Georgetown.

JULY MEETING OF STONE SCHOOL FARM FORUM

The Stone School Farm Forum had a summer meeting Monday evening. It was quite a party. Not only were the Forum members out in almost full force, but their summer visitors, their neighbours and friends - over seventy people, old and young, gathered on the spacious lawn of Ben Case on the 8th Line. Amusing contests were held, and several entertaining pictures shown. It is rumoured that there were over fifty pies as part of the refreshments and it was a night long to be remembered by the friendly folk of the Stone School Farm Forum.

WHEAT FIELD BURNED, NINE ACRES LOST

During combine operations in a wheat field on the 10th Line owned by Wilbert Cleave, a fire started in the standing wheat. The fire occurred last Saturday and its spread was so rapid that trenches had to be ploughed to stop the blaze. About nine acres of good wheat was lost.

GRC CAMPAIGN SLOWED BY HOLIDAY SEASON

The GRC Fund campaign is slowed down for the next two weeks due to the holiday season. While some canvassing is being done, there will be a lull until the large local industries are running again. A list of acknowledgements will appear in the August 10th issue of the Herald, the treasurer, Jack Malcolm, being on vacation for the next two weeks.
