LIMEHOUSE

The ladies of Limehouse Women's Institute entertained a number of members from neighbouring Institutes on Wed. afternoon, July 28, in Limehouse Memorial Hall, the president Mrs. E. Miller, being in charge. Entertainment included recitations by little Miss Dale Roughley of London, who was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Roughley and tap dancing by Noreen Davis of Montreal, also a visitor in the neighbourhood. Mrs. William Cromar, always a welcome visitor, contributed several recitations in her own inimitable style. Mrs. William McClure of Brampton, who was a W.I. delegate to the World Conference at Amsterdam two years ago, gave a wonderful talk on her trip. She told of her visit to relatives in Ireland of attending several W.I. meetings in England and of a visit in Scotland with the Reverend and Mrs. Anderson, he being at one time a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Brampton. She detailed her experiences in foreign countries and the convention itself where all Canadians received a wonderful welcome. Women from all over the world attended the conference and every one should be to belong to the Institute. Another feature of the afternoon was the showing of the film "Let There Be Light", a movie depicting the 50th anniversary celebration at Guelph in June, 1947. This was especially interesting to members who had attended this event. The ladies were grateful to Mr. Ern Batkin for his part in the showing of the film. Another interesting item on the program took place when Mrs. McCullough of Brampton, provincial secretary, was asked to come to the platform along with Mrs. William Mitchell and Mrs. A. J. Smethurst. Mrs. McCullough presented Mrs. Mitchell with a life membership certificate and life membership pin was presented by Mrs. Smethurst. Mrs. Mitchell has been a member of Limehouse W.I. for 25 years. The ladies served afternoon tea at the conclusion of the program.

PRIZES GIVEN FOR OLD SIGN COLLECTING

As a small feature of the Stay-at-home camp last week, the Herald editor offered prizes of 50c and 25c for the largest collection of old advertising signs which were still on posts around town. Three boys combined their efforts to gather 65, Bob Mackie, Doug Richardson and Michael Lambert and each received a 25c prize, while John Mileham of Stewarttown gathered 53 to get second prize.
The good work of the boys removed unsightly posters which are always an eyesore when they remain up long after an event is over.

LIONS CLUB PLAN FALL ACTIVITY

At a meeting of Georgetown Lions Club last week at the home of Walter Biehn, Ray Whitnee was appointed chairman of a fall money raising event for the club. Reports of the New York convention and the Stay-at-home camp were presented and the president, J. L. Lambert presented a suggested list of committees and chairmen for next season. One meeting will be held in August at the home of Ray Whitnee.

Benjamin Franklin introduced the bromo to America.
Still in use in many rural homes is the old fashioned kerosene lamp.
