For Bookworms Everywhere...

International book coupons issued by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (Unesco) now enable readers in countries with currency restrictions to buy books published in other countries. Coupons are sold by Unesco and may be paid for in local currency, then used to pay for books from abroad. Here a Belgian miss studies coupon, worth one dollar.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hughes have returned home after visiting in Soperton with their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Jeffery. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McPherson have returned from a visit with relatives at Port Elgin, Owen Sound and Glanville. Prior to her marriage last Friday, Mrs. Jack Bailey (Marjorie Kentner) was guest of honour at a miscellaneous shower tendered by Mrs. Spence McKinnon and her mother, Mrs. William Millere, and also at a shower at the home of Mrs. George Dobson when a number of friends went together to present her with a lovely gift.

CHAMPIONSHIPS DECIDED IN G.R.C. LACROSSE

Last Thursday night at the Norval Bowl, the G.R.C. lacrosse finals were played before the Intermediate game and a good crowd of spectators attended to watch the young district lads in action. Both games were real thrillers and there was little to choose between the winners and losers. The Bantam game between the Crees and Beavers was won in the last few seconds when Glen Wellington scored his second goal of the evening for the Crees. Leonard Benstead had tied the score a few seconds earlier with his second for Beavers. Crees took an early lead on goals by Ross Cunningham and Wellington. Brampton won the Midget finals by a 2-1 score. Sho Teramoto scored in the second period and W. Alexander in the fourth. Bud Haines brought Peterboro within a goal of the winners to end the scoring.

JOHN T. ARMSTRONG

The Mutual Life of Canada has released its Honours List, recognizing Mr. J. T. Armstrong of Georgetown for outstanding service to his community in the club year recently closed. He has qualified as a member of the Company's senior production group, the Quarter Million Club.

Qualification for club membership requires not only the underwriting of a large volume of protection, but, more important, the writing from year to year of "quality" business, that is, life insurance that is continued in force. These two factors, combined with a high personal standard of confidential service to policyholders, earn this recognition for Mutual Life representatives.

A splendid variety of materials — frize, boucle, mohair, velour, tapestry, silk brocatelle, silk and cotton rep.
