ISMOND-BROWN WEDDING IN NORVAL CHURCH

Norval Presbyterian Church, in a setting of pink and white gladioli, was the scene of the wedding on Saturday afternoon, August 27, of Margaret Alma Brown, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown, Norval, and Donald John Ismond, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ismond, Georgetown. Rev. J. N. McFaul of Oakville officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a gown of blush satin styled with sweetheart neckline, basque bodice, full skirt, long pointed sleeves and short veil. Her tulle veil was held in place with a sequin tiara. She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom, and carried a shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses and bouvardia. Miss Ethel Brown was her sister's maid of honour, attired in pink taffeta with gardenia headress and carrying blush pink and white gladioli. Miss Mary Ismond, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid dressed in pastel green taffeta with a gardenia halo and carrying yellow gladioli.

Mr. Bruce Ismond was groomsmen for his brother and the ushers were Thomas Snow and George Ismond. Before the ceremony Mr. Stuart McFadden, cousin of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love" and "I'll Walk Beside You" was his selection during the signing of the register. He was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Harston.

A reception was held afterwards in the church basement, where the bride's mother received wearing burgundy with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, wearing powder blue with navy accessories and a red rose corsage.

The bride and groom left for a motor trip to Ottawa and points north, the bride travelling in a wine gabardine suit, black accessories and grey shortle coat. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Erin.

It requires a great deal of boldness and caution to make a fortune, and when you have got it, it requires ten times as much wit to keep it.

GEORGETOWN UNITED CHURCH

The combined congregations of the Presbyterian and United Churches worshipped in the United Church on Sunday morning, Rev. John M. Smith conducted the worship and spoke on the subject "The Holy Spirit at Work." This message was the fourth in a series entitled "A Triumphant Faith." Mr. Smith emphasized that the Holy Spirit confronts us, a warning, convicting, pleading and transforming power: the Holy Spirit inspires us; and the Holy Spirit empowers us. Miss Ruth Evans, accompanied by Mrs. J. Evans, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

It was announced that the congregational picnic would be held on Saturday, Sept. 10th.

WILL BE EXCHANGE TEACHER IN VANCOUVER

One of a group of Ontario teachers who are exchanging schools this year is Miss Margaret Young, a niece of Miss Georgina Young of town. While many of the teachers are going abroad, Miss Young says that she wants to learn more about Canada first and will teach this year in Vancouver, B.C. A native of Erin, she taught in Acton for nine years after graduating from Stratford Normal School, then went to Huron Street School, Toronto, where she teaches Grade 4. On the coast she hopes to study handicrafts in which she takes a great deal of interest and at Christmas time plans a trip to California. Miss Young's picture, along with other exchange teachers, appeared in last night's Toronto Evening Telegram.
