MACKENZIE NEWS

It's good weather for working, eating and sleeping.
 Good news in the lumber business are the lower prices for lumber coming in from the Spring cut. Quality is higher and the lumber drier, so that you can get more for your building dollar this Fall.
 See you at the "Ex".

FORMER STEWARTTOWN GIRL DIES IN TORONTO

A former resident of Stewarttown Miss Frances Irene Wrigglesworth, died at her home, 103 Withrow Avenue, Toronto, on August 18th. Born on the 6th Line. Esquimaux, she spent her childhood in Stewarttown and moved to the city with her family about twenty years ago. She was a daughter of Mrs. Frances Wrigglesworth and the late George A. Wrigglesworth. Surviving are her mother and three sisters, Myrtle, Mrs. J. R. Brockest (Olive) and Mrs. J. M. Kearney (Della). The funeral service was held on August 20 with interment in Pine Hill Cemetery.

STRINGTIME SERENADER

Fred Hill, romantic tenor heard in the weekly Stringtime broadcasts from Montreal. Mr. Hill first came to the attention of listeners in 1930, when he broadcast from Vancouver in Alan Young's program Stag Party, and since then he's been featured regularly in network and private radio shows. He also sings in CBC International Service broadcasts to other countries and has appeared as guest artist on such programs as Canadian Cavalcade and the Northern Electric Hour. Born in Melfort, Saskatchewan, the young tenor has sung his way across Canada and down to Bermuda, and was a popular entertainer in the Army.
