AROUND THE BEND

with Steamboat
Last Wednesday night in Fergus the Raiders had the series wrapped up twice only, to lose both leads and let Fergus tie them to force the series to the eighth game. This game was played in Fergus Saturday afternoon before a large crowd. It wasn't long until Fergus piled the wins up and up and although the locals played away, taking it all with a grin, they knew themselves there was not going to be anymore baseball for them this season. Everything went wrong and Fergus were really hitting.

Tempers flared once when Gibson niked home on a base hit and Chappel came streaking in close behind only to be tagged at home by Miller, the Fergus pitcher. Miller had been the bad boy of the series all along and was not popular with the crowd. In his attempt to tag Chappel he again reverted to his rough-house tactics only to be attacked by both Chappel and Miller. Order was restored before any damage was done but it was plain to see Miller was in for a rough game if he so desired.

There was only once in the last game the locals looked like they were a baseball team. In the seventh innings a spurt was put on and seven runs crossed the plate. Fergus were the better team and they deserved to win, so we wish them good luck and hope they keep going along the championship trail.

Lions and Norval start the final play-off series in the A Group of the Softball league Wednesday night in the park. From the start of the league it looked as if the Glen and Cheltenham were the strong entries but the Lions and Norval have come up with two real first class ball clubs and both deserve to be in there battling for the championship. Ray Pomeroy and Bud Carter are handling the Norval club. They have Bill Chaplin on the mound for them while the Lions have Bill Barry, Joe Stamp and Jim Kirkwood. It should be an excellent series and a lot of fun.
