

There's a big story...

...in your new telephone book

It's the story of nearly 4,000 new and changed listings — including those resulting from the recent extension to Georgetown's telephone system. It's a story of growth and development which enlarges the scope, and therefore the value, of your telephone.

Most people are listed in your telephone book. It saves time and annoyance to make sure of a number by looking it up first.

NOT SURE OF THE NUMBER? LOOK IT UP FIRST!

Heho Homemakers! Next week is Thanksgiving. In many homes there will be much anticipated family gatherings. It is a time to count one's many blessings, large and small, to welcome the family home.

Although roast turkey or baked ham is traditional fare for Thanksgiving, a delicious fried chicken, served with spoon bread, sweet potatoes and Harvard beets is a main course suggestion. Carrot pudding with old English Hard sauce is a dessert fit for such a festive meal.

FRIED CHICKEN

Clean chicken and cut into pieces. Salt, place in an earthenware dish and let stand overnight in the refrigerator. Drain, roll in flour and place in a heavy aluminum or iron frying pan in which 2/3 cup of shortening has been browned. Then add one cup of boiling water and cover with a tight lid and cook over low heat for one hour. Cream Gravy: Remove chicken from skillet, stir in flour (use proportions of 2 tablespoons flour to two tablespoons dripping), stir in 1 cup milk (for each 2 tbsps. flour used) and cook until thick. Season with salt, pepper and summer savoury.

SPOON BREAD

1. Mix together 1 cup sifted corn meal, 1 tsp. salt.
2. Stir in 2 1/2 cups scalded milk.
3. Then add 2 tbsps. butter or margarine.
4. Continue stirring and add 3 beaten egg yolks.
5. Beat in 1 tsp. baking powder.
6. Fold in 3 beaten egg whites.
7. Pour in buttered baking dish and bake about 30 minutes in pre-heated electric oven of 350 degrees. Serve with a spoon.

GLAZED SWEET POTATOES

- 2 tbsps. butter or margarine
 - 1/2 cup brown sugar
 - 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
 - 2 tbsps. water
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 4 sweet potatoes, boiled
- Cook together in frying pan the water, butter, brown sugar, salt, and orange rind, until a thin syrup is formed. Cut sweet potatoes in halves, add to syrup; cook slowly, spooning syrup over the potatoes until glazed.

CARROT PUDDING

- 1 cup chopped raw carrots
- 2 cups raisins, ground
- 1/2 cup honey, syrup or molasses or
- 1/2 cup sugar and 2 tablespoons water
- 1/2 cup ground suet
- Juice and rind of 1 orange or lemon

Mix all ingredients together well and fill greased cans two-thirds full. Use any empty baking powder can with holes punched in the lid. Steam for 2 1/2 hours. Serve with a sauce, if desired. Makes six servings.

OLD ENGLISH HARD SAUCE

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 - 1 1/2 tbsps. milk
 - 1 tsp. vanilla
 - 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioner's sugar
 - 1 1/2 tbsps. molasses
 - 1/2 tsp. grated orange rind (optional)
- Cream butter or margarine until fluffy. Gradually add confectioner's sugar, milk and molasses. Stir in vanilla and orange rind.

FORMER DISTRICT MAN DIES IN COOKSVILLE

Campbell Sten, a former resident of the Ballinfad district died suddenly at the wheel of his car in Cooksville last month. Born at Streetville, he farmed for a number of years on the 8th Concession, Erin Township, and in 1946 retired and moved to Cooksville. His wife, the former Lavina Walterhouse, died in 1947. He is survived by three daughters and one son, Mrs. Louise Marshall and Mrs. Helen Gillespie of Cooksville, Mrs. Florence Head of Windsor and Jack of Sudbury. A brother, Evan, lives in Kingston, a sister Ethel, in Toronto and another sister Mrs. Ruth VanCamp in Vancouver.

Local Couple Fly to England

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Taylor flew to England last week for a short vacation trip, planning to return about the middle of this month. Mr. Taylor is the local Massey-Harris agent, operating the business on Mill Street which he purchased a few years ago from Alex Hulme. The Taylors make their home on the former Lloyd Davison farm near Milton.

Hamilton Minister at Nassagaweya Anniversary

Rev. Forbes Thompson, M.A., B.D., of MacNab Presbyterian Church Hamilton, was guest speaker at the 113th anniversary services of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church, when many from neighbouring congregations joined in the special morning and evening services. For his evening subject, Mr. Thompson chose a topic of current interest "The Open Sunday". Campbellville choir provided the music at the morning service and in the evening the Velvetone choir of Chalmer's Church, Guelph, assisted with the service.

On Monday evening, a turkey supper and concert was staged by the Ladies Aid. Four hundred people had supper in the Sunday School rooms at tables decorated with fall flowers, fancy tomatoes, and apples, and laden with all the good things which accompany a full-course turkey meal. The program was held later in the church and featured the Wilson Concert Company from Dundas. The church was decorated with gladioli and other fall flowers.
