FORMER MANAGER OF BRAMPTON BANK GETS NEW POST

Officials of the Royal Bank last week announced the appointment of Mr. Ben Strath as manager of the London, England branch. He succeeds E. B. McInerney, manager of the branch since 1929, who has been named a director. Mr. Strath was manager of the bank's branch in Brampton from 1941 to November of 1943, immediately prior to the appointment of the present manager, Mr. J. E. McArthur. In 1938 he was appointed assistant manager of Winnipeg branch, and two years later was transferred to Toronto as inspector of Ontario branches. In 1941 he was appointed manager at Brampton and 1943 inspector of Alberta branches. Mr. Strath was appointed to London England, in 1945, as special representative for the bank's foreign trade department. He was made assistant manager of London branch in 1948.

BELL and CABLE are two names that are gaining the authority of a respected trade-mark in the realm of Canadian music. The combination of the Leslie Bell Singers and Howard Cable's orchestral arrangements is proving one of the most successful collaborations in radio. The Leslie Bell Singers were organized eleven years ago as an alumnae girls' chorus and since that time have earned themselves an international reputation.
