Freddie Lawrence, 20 year old sensa-Children a Specialty 10-26 tional goalie of last year's Port Dover Club is now employed as a bookkeeper at Scott Motor Sales and will more than likely be "it" as far as the Raiders are concerned this year. Coming from Simcoe a few days ago Freddie has already made a lot of friends and seems to be enjoying Georgetown. John "Scotty" Patterson, Kenny Nash and Leigh Bradbury were all out situated on the Rockwood Line of there skating fast and blocking the African violets for sale, several Eramosa, 's mile north of Oustic, same way they performed their de-· fensive duties last year.. Junior and Del Beaumont, Jack Kemshead, Rene Martin and Harvey Chappel of last year's team were really flying and showing signs of the old Raider brilliance. Mel Beaumont was trying out as well as Splid Patterson and Bill Barry 25, 2 year old steers; 25 yearling both local boys, Spud being the manager of the Maher Shoe' Store and Bill working for Don Barrager as a tailor. Three new faces that showed a lot of promise and some hockey brains were Florin, Stephenson, and Gallager of Weston. Stephenson was signed by Eddie Shore to play down East but declined in order to play here. Florin looks like a real good bet as a forward, skates and stickhandles well, and is young and eager.
