

High School News

by Lamb
Last Thursday Miss Piercey and her Basketball Babes and Softball Slouches journeyed to Milton High School via Georgetown Transportation Co., and as you have probably guessed they took up a challenge by Milton to show their stuff against the Milton team. So for the week preceding the game Miss Piercey said "I don't expect the softball team to make much of a showing." Well, fate is cruel. I guess the Basketball team lost to the Miltonites 18-8, and the softball team won 12-7 from Milton. The softball game attracted my first attentions. The battery for Georgetown was the Herrington sisters. Joyce was catching and Dolores pitching and I must compliment them on their fine work. Milton opened the game with a double by Kennedy and followed it up with two runs, however in the second inning Zilio knocked a triple and was brought in later. Georgetown began to fight and by the top of the fourth inning the score was 12-7 for Georgetown. The basketball game came in for a lot of attention also. (not because the girls were all wearing shorts of course). Mary Spitzer was the star for the Georgetown team netting two baskets and the star for Milton was Freda Howard netting five baskets.

Monday night onto the rugby field behind GHS moved as of a solid wall the greatest rugby team in the history of this year. Muscular bodies twitching and nostrils flaring with man's dormant killer instinct brought to life by the smell of fresh blood (somebody get Nobby a glass of water). On practice they developed a new defensive formation borrowed from Mc-Gill who used it the first time last Saturday when they defeated Varsity. The backfield is good but

CHINESE STEWARDESSES FOR CANADIAN PLANES: A new and charming addition to the ranks of Canadian air line stewardesses are these three Chinese girls, slated for duty on the Canadian Pacific Air Line flights from Vancouver to Tokyo and Hong Kong. Shown here are Joyce Lam, Hong Kong; Barbara Aycliffe, Port Alberni, B.C.; and Gloria Woo, Hong Kong. A fourth Chinese lass, Dulcie Hall, of Hong Kong, arrived at Vancouver earlier

COUNCIL NEWS—NEXT WEEK'S ISSUE

MEMORIAL SERVICE ON NOVEMBER 11th

It just wasn't possible to get Monday night's council meeting written up for this issue of the Herald, so it will be printed in the October 26 issue. One or two other items had to be left also, including an account of a Court of Revision.

The Memorial Service this year for those killed in two World Wars will be held on November 11th at 11 a.m. While the day will not be a public holiday, businesses are being asked to close for a two-hour period in the morning. Poppy Day will be held on November 5th, the previous Saturday.

"THE GREAT DAN PATCH"
WATCH FOR PLAYDATES!

we have one heck of a strong line. The offensive isn't too strong, but defensive is exceptional. They play BHS (Brampton), never heard of it, High School) this Tuesday the 18th. Results next week.

In all probability there will be a school dance this Friday at the old town hall (Club Midtown). There will be an admission charge and for those students who have paid their student council fees the charge will be considerably less. There will be a lunch served (am I glad). Each form is requested to present a skit of approximately five minutes duration (more than enough). There may also be some movies shown earlier in the evening. Students and ex-students are invited.

Pardon my mistake, girls, but I haven't forgot you. Four lovely young gals from GHS have banded themselves together and now form the GHS cheerleaders. They made their first appearance in Milton at the games last Thursday. Wearing short school tunics and the glorious colours of the school they urged the tears on. They will accompany the rugby team to Brampton with Razzle Dazzle, razzle dazzle rear, Georgetown, raise that score. They are Gwen Conn, Dianne Cameron, Joan Dobbie, and Marilyn Bell.

Here is some good news for the men...Sadie Hawkins Dance is coming up. November the fourth is the date and the place Club Midtown. It will announce the official opening of TWIRP season. (The woman is requested to pay). The admission prices are, per couple, 25 cents and stag 25 cents. Corsets if any will consist of vegetables and will also be supplied by the femme. See youse all thar in Dogpatch stile, remember November the fourth.

And now once again for your edification and enjoyment the makers of Murgatroyd's Meatless Meatballs present another thrilling saga in the life of Tony Two-Eye. Chapter Three. How Tony found love and a million dollars.

Some of the in the Pige-eye school and temperance hall. Why Molly he said what are you doing here.

C'mon over, and I'll buy you a beer. But she refused.

And that she enthused. She hated a man who was always boozed.

So over to her table he went in a rush. Put his arms around and started to mush.

Of course this was a bad thing to do at this moment for into the tavern came a man who was haggard and thin. The Crowd dispersed for the man was engaged to Molly and his name was Poison.

Let go of me she cried in fright! And struggled against him with all her might.

Let go of me you assinine fool, Or I'll cave in your head with a barstool.

Poison heard her cries, and hit Tony square in the eyes, but our hero didn't fall, instead he said "I'll pull out my gun and shoot you dead."

Tony had his gun aimed mighty straight. And Poison began to quake and shake.

Tony pulled the trigger and the bullet sped. Light past Poison's ugly head. The bullet ploved into the splintery floor.

Just afore the barroom floor. This of course was the chance Tony had been waiting for. Poison turned for a second and Tony took a mighty leap. Tony landed on Poison and bit him. Poison died immediately from Phobia. Molly rushed into Tony's arms and said "Tony I love you. That horrid man tormented me to become engaged to him and I hated him. You killed him and I am yours for evermore. take me in your arms and kiss me (burd, isn't it). So Tony found true love and a million dollars. of course, I almost forgot to tell you arch uncle died and left it to him.

Read in next week and see how Tony found another million dollars and killed the villainous doctor. Eat Murgatroyd's meatballs with your soup with your coffee or garlic. You'll need something to kill the taste. (of the meatballs).

An Ad in the Herald's New Advertisement Column will bring RESULTS!

EVERY DAY SATISFIED CUSTOMERS TELL US OF THE GOOD RESULTS OBTAINED FROM OUR "NEW ADVERTISEMENT" COLUMN

One call resulted in a sale for a lady's tailored suit and coat recently advertised under a box number... Avon Products secured a representative for their line of beauty preparations from answers received from a Herald ad... Several advertisers have been making sales of apples... An advertisement for a piano for sale resulted in several phone calls to the office last week... As did an apartment advertised for rent...

Correction... Two weeks ago we boasted about selling Frank Tighe's 1949 Meteor, only to find that our information was wrong... Sorry Frank!

It costs two cents a word (minimum charge is 50c) for one of these small ads... Half price for subsequent insertions...

We don't guarantee results... but we have a fair percentage of satisfied customers... Incidentally, in this year's weekly newspaper competitions, the Herald had the highest rating for volume of small advertisements in its class...
