DENNEY CHARLES HEADS CHECK LINE FORUM

The first meeting of the Check Line Farm Forum took the form of an organization meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. DeVries. The new officers elected for the year were: Denney Charles, president; Mrs. Ernest Curry secretary; Joan DeVries, treasurer. The necessary committees were formed for the coming year.

At the conclusion of business Mrs. DeVries, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Brown served lunch. The first regular meeting will be held next Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Ruddell when the first broadcast of the farm radio forum will be listened to and discussed.

BALLINAFAD

Ballinafad Farm Forum met Monday night at the home of Mrs. D. J. Sinclair for an organization meeting. The new president is Lloyd Marshall, secretary Mrs. Bob McEneaney and press secretary Miss Pat Edmunds. "Wanted, a chance for experience" will be the discussion subject at the next meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall.

STEWARTTOWN

Miss Davies, our teacher, went to Burlington last Friday to attend the Teachers' Conference. The children had a holiday that day.

W.A. meeting was a quilting at Mrs. C. Smith's home, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Dickenson was called to Toronto Wednesday by Mrs. K. Aitken to attend the Tamblin broadcast that evening and receive an award of $50.00 for submitting what was considered the best Essay. The subject was "Housing Conditions." Congratulations to you, Mrs. Dickenson.

The AYPA held their first meeting for the 1949-50 season in the school Friday night.

ASHGROVE

The W.I. meeting was held on Tuesday, afternoon, October 18th, at the lovely home of Mrs. Len Cox with Mrs. Chas. Austin presiding. The secretary, Mrs. Harvey Nurse, read the minutes of the previous meeting and the Roll Call was answered by "What I Have Done to Prepare for Winter." Correspondence was read and considerable business discussed and plans were made for the booth at the ploughing match. Following this Mrs. J. H. Hunter gave the motto "Be proud of your farm heritage and have faith in the future," which had some excellent ideas and thoughts from the pen of Peter McArthur. The speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Frank Finelhart, District President of Halton Women's Institutes who spoke on "Agriculture and Canadian Industry." Mrs. Wm. Cromar of Stewarttown delighted everyone with her humorous selections and Mrs. Francis Thompson sang a solo "In The Garden of My Heart." A social time followed the business meeting.

Anniversary services were well attended by large congregations both morning and evening, last Sunday. The stirring messages by the visiting minister Rev. Harold Staunton, and the music by our own choir in the morning and Eden Mills, Presbyterian choir in the evening were enjoyed by everyone.

REBEKAHS HOLD EUCHRE PARTY

With twenty-four tables in play, the ladies of Verdun Rebekah Lodge entertained at a euchre party in the Oddfellows Hall last Thursday. Prizewinners were Mrs. Victor King, Mrs. Harold Campbell, Reg Williams, Robert Jenson and Irwin Noble. Mrs. T. R. Cave won a hamper of apples in a lucky draw. Refreshments were served after cards.

COUNCIL OF WOMEN WILL MAKE SHOES FOR BRITISH KIDDIES

The October meeting of the Local Council was held on Friday, October 21st at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Wm. Bullivant. Mrs. R. T. Paul took the chair in the absence of the President, Mrs. Jesse Wyatt. In the absence of Mrs. A. R. Vanatter, Miss H. A. Staunton acted as secretary. The treasurer's statement was read by Mrs. Paul, showing a good balance. Letters from Ontario Provincial Council of Women were read by Correspondence Secretary, Miss Nettie Lawson. The annual meeting of the Royal York Hotel on November 25th and 26th and members were urged to attend.

Georgetown Local Council is undertaking to make shoes for British children, from pieces of felt. It was decided to send $5.00 to the Poppy Fund.

Miss Lawson read the "News Letter" from the Royal Bank entitled — "Let's Slow Down" — a very interesting and entertaining commentary on present days ways of living.

The collection amounted to $12, which will be sent to the Georgetown Recreational Council. Mrs. Fred Braisby thanked the hostesses — Mrs. Bullivant and Mrs. George Allen for their hospitality. A social time was spent over a cup of tea.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Nodwell.

GEORGETOWN UNITED CHURCH

Regular morning worship was conducted in the Georgetown United Church on Sunday by the minister, Rev. John M. Smith, who read the lesson from 1st John, Chap. 4. The sermon was entitled "God Is Love" and was based on the text 1st John 4:16. The choir under the direction of Miss Lynda Stewart sang the anthem "Jesus, Word of God Incarnate" — P. H. Gounod and the Offertory "They that Wait upon the Lord."

The evening worship was conducted by Mr. William Gibb, minister of the Ballinafad Circuit.

Preparations are being made for the 110th Anniversary Services to be held on Sunday, Nov. 6th at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. The choir is preparing special music, and the Junior Choir, newly organized by Miss L. Stewart, will participate. The guest speaker is to be the Moderator of the United Church of Canada, the Right Rev. Willard Brewing, B.D., D.D., of St. George's United Church, Toronto.

FIREMEN CALLED TO GRASS FIRE WEDNESDAY

The fire brigade were called to a grass fire last Wednesday afternoon on the property of H. E. Ostrander on Guelph Street. No damage was reported.

Baby birds often eat more than their own weight in food daily.

HANDICRAFT CLASSES PLANNED BY G.R.C.

A number of local people who are interested in joining handicraft classes attended a meeting in the United Church Sunday School room last Thursday which was called by the Recreation Commission and several registered for courses which will be jointly sponsored by the G.R.C. and the Arts and Crafts of Georgetown.

Three colour films were shown, dealing with such subjects as weaving, leather and metal work, gem polishing and bookbinding. Joe Bannigan, handicraft advisor for the Department of Education, and Mr. Garvie, zone director of recreation for the department were speakers, Mr. Bannigan explaining the different aspects of handicraft and Mr. Garvie telling how they should be linked to a community program. Mr. Alex MacLaren, chairman of the G.R.C. was chairman for the evening, and asked that any others who might be interested in joining classes contact Mrs. A. M. Nielsen for registration.

SCHOOL SURVEY

Georgetown Board of Education is making a survey of the town to estimate the number of children who will become of school age during the next five years. The senior pupils of the Public School will call at your home on Monday or Tuesday morning. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.
