BOWLING CLUB NEWS

The season's high single was beaten for the third time last week in the Industrial League by Maurice Herbert, with a resounding 331. Maurice also had high triple of 799. Second place was taken by Hank Chaplin 291 and Joe Lorusso 699. Jim Yates still holds the season's high triple with 797. The Big Ten are composed of Maurice Herbert 233; Jim Yates 228; Bill Anderson 226; Joe Hall 225; Jim Boyle 223; Ken Nash 221; Ace Bailey 221; Joe Lorusso 220; Dave Stamp 215; Nip Shipway 212.

With each team having 12 games played, standings in the Industrial are as follows:

	W.	L.	Pts.
COMBINES	9	3	22
S&S LOCAL 788	8	4	19
NORTON FLORAL	8	4	19
ALLIANCE	6	6	15
MISFITS	6	6	14
SMITH & STONE	6	6	13
PAJ TIRE	5	7	12
LEGION	5	7	11
LORNE SCOTS	4	8	8
NORVAL	3	9	7

The Meteors, Tick Tocks and Kitchen Crumbs are fighting it out for the lead in the Ladies Afternoon League. Meteors with 17 points having an edge on the other two. Mrs. Herb Hancock has season's high average of 199. Last week Mrs. Gene Green had high single 248 and Mrs. Duke Burrow high triple 595.

Colour Room still has a substantial lead in the Provincial Paper house league with 17 points to their closest rival, Office with 12. W. Bradley had both high single and triple last week, 253 and 716 respectively. Jean Dickie was high lady with 222.

Ganrats and Timber Topplers share top spot in the Smith and Stone league, each with 19 points. Dorothy Lane had high triple and Jean Lockhurst high single for the ladies' last week. Glen Gibbs swept the field for the men.

MACKENZIE NEWS

Have you seen the site for the new Glen Williams school? It is going to be a model Village school with a model location.

We have a complete line of Dexter tubular lock sets on hand. These are easier to install, are made of solid brass and guaranteed for a lifetime. The Dexter Lock Co. is situated in Guelph so that is not too far away to see that they live up to their guarantee. The prices are moderate, ranging from $2.75 to $4.00 for inside door sets.

Now that we've had our first snow, see you enjoying Indian summer.

TWIXTEEN NEWS

by Jacqueline Graham
Hi kids! Are you all set for TwixTeen's big masquerade party? (There's now, you can't scold us for leaving it out this week.)

Oh Johnny, how can you be so cruel to us! Yes, musical chairs again, Betsy Willson the winner. Because of winning she was allowed to start the bingo dance with Ross Hillier. Rodney Hyde won the game of "pass the parcel." Looks like Lillian Shepherd and Teddy Hewitt can beat both groups in jiving — they're champs again. Billy Farmer was the successful winner of the paper hunt. Then all settled down to a nice game of Wink.

Girls and boys were then divided into two groups, the girls playing Red Rover and the boys having a rooster fight. See you at the Halloween party next week.
