

HEAD AVERAGE 686 AT HOLSTEIN SALE

E. Ross Segsworth, Freeman, received $1,750 for a bred heifer at the All-Canadian Holstein Sale held October 24 in Toronto. She was Spruceleigh Chieftain Dorothea who was purchased by Rosafe Farms, Brampton. This was the second highest price for a bred heifer in the sale. Graymar Farms, Oakville, sold a bred heifer for $1,400. W. P. Laidlaw & Sons, Norval, sold a bred heifer for $550 and W. N. and H. R. Blanghard, Freeman, a bred heifer for $475. W. S. Hall & Son, Oakville, purchased a bred heifer at $975 and International Livestock Exporters Oakville, a bred heifer at $850.

HOCKEY IS HERE, RAIDERS WIN, LOSE

A session with the dentist was too much for our sports reporter this week and the "Seamboat" column is missing. Georgetown lost an exhibition game in Lindsay Saturday 10-7 but trimmed the Toronto Metros here last night 2-3 in return. Thursday night the first of a series of double-headers for the Tost trophy will be played. Georgetown (Brampton), Oakville and Weston are competing.

G.R.C. NEWS

Ballet dancing, under sponsorship of the G.R.C. promises to be a great success. Classes in the Rose Room will start either next week or the following with Mrs. R. B. Canham, who appeared in ballet and musical comedy in London, England, as instructor. Junior and senior groups for girls are planned, each group numbering from ten to twenty and the lesson charge will be $1.00. Registrations can be made by phoning 2442.

Coaches and managers of the G-team Industrial hockey league will meet in the Rose Room next Monday evening to discuss plans for the league.

Figure skating has reached the place where an assistant has been engaged to help Miss Amos, the instructor. Miss Edith Allison, commercial teacher at the high school, who gained much experience with the Minto Club in Ottawa, will help with the class.

Final games for the midget and bantam soccer championships will be played Friday after school. In the bantam semi-finals, Sioux are a game up on Iroquois. The winner will meet Norval Creses. Flyers and Rangers are tied in the midget league and play-off today. Winner will play off with Glen Thistles.

HALTON CONSERVATIVES ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Allan S. Nicholson, Burlington lumber merchant, was chosen president of Halton Conservative Association for a second term at the annual meeting in Milton last week. Stanley Hall, M.P.P., conducted the installation of officers, these being: Allan S. Nicholson, Burlington, president; S. A. B. McCleary, Oakville, 1st vice president; Mrs. M. Ryckman, 2nd vice president; Bruce Fitzgerald, Milton, secretary; John Greer, Acton, treasurer. Speakers at the meeting included Mr. Hall, Mr. Nicholson and Miss Sybil Bennett, K.C., unsuccessful candidate in the last federal election.

TRAVEL PICTURES SHOWN AT LIONS CLUB MEETING

As a feature of the dinner meeting of the Lions Club last Tuesday at the M'Gibbon House, Cecil Davidson showed coloured slides taken by W. F. Bradley. They included scenes taken at Banff, in the Maritimes and Newfoundland, as well as several pictures of the Hutt Iris garden and scenic views in this district. Also included was a picture of Ex-Mayor Joseph Gibbons, Mayor Jack Armstrong and Councillor William McNally taken as they viewed water being pumped from the new well when it was being tested.

The members were requested to march as a group in the Remembrance Day parade next week. Lion Jack Gunning reported a successful masquerade dance and said the profit would be about $70. A draw for a bushel of apples donated by Norman Smith was won by Bruce MacKenzie.

FRASER BULL GOES TO COLOMBIA

Spring Farm Sovereign Supreme, one of Canada's top Holstein show bulls has been sold for $20,000 by J. M. G. W. and W. D. Fraser, Streetsville, to Guillermo Herrera Carrizosa, of Bogota, Colombia.

Supreme will be shipped after the Royal at which he will be shown. Weighing close to 2700 lbs. he will be one of the largest bulls ever carried by air. Supreme has three times been named All-Canadian and twice All-American. He was Grand Champion at the recent Brantford Championship Show and for the past two years at the C.N.E. His sire is the noted Sovereign.
