

GEORGETOWN HAS A "ROYAL" BABY

At least one district little girl will have no trouble remembering her birth-date, for she was born on the same day as England's Prince Charles, son of the Princess Elizabeth. She is little Trudy Emmerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson. A family party was held in her honour here, just as the royal family entertained for the prince.

Steamer seems to have missed the boat with his column this week. Maybe that toothache's back.

NORVAL

The monthly meeting of St. Stephen's A.Y.P.A., Hornby, was held on Monday, November 7th, at St. Paul's Rectory, Norval, with a number of visitors present from Stewarttown and Norval. Miss Evelyn Course of Hornby acted as chairman for the evening and Mr. Henry "Hank" Peacock was auctioneer for a candy sale, and judging by the proceeds did exceptionally well. An interesting talk was given by Mrs. Cameron Barker of St. Paul's Guild on her work in the Indian Residential Schools at Moose Factory and Sioux Lookout. Mrs. Barker explained the school system and the trying conditions under which the missionaries worked, and her address was well illustrated with a number of snapshots. Following this, Dr. Forbes of Norval spoke of his work as a member of the British Medical Service on the Gold Coast in Africa. Dr. Forbes spent twenty-two years as a medical doctor among the natives, and gave a most informative address. Refreshments were served, and Rev. J. E. Maxwell closed the meeting with the Benediction. The next meeting will be held on the first Monday in December.

Scouts of the first Norval Troop, held their weekly meeting in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, November 9th, and among those passing the final test for their second-class badge were Julian Reed, Don Jarvie, George Smith, Don Smith, and Gordon Graham. Arrangements were made for the reception of several members of the Cub Pack and the going-up ceremony was outlined for the following Wednesday, November 16th. The Cubs who are going up to Scouts had a secret meeting while the rest of the Pack were in the Hall, and with Akela, went down to their fireplace by the Credit river and cooked a late supper. This fireplace was built last summer as a Pack good turn for the community, with the sincere hope of the Pack that it would serve as a pleasant meeting-place for any and all who were picnic-minded.

The Presbyterian Manse had a face-lifting recently with the generous help of their congregation, and at the same time St. Paul's Rectory across the road was being partially re-roofed with the kind assistance of the Church members from Hornby and Norval.

Mr. Frank Fendley is to be complimented on the really beautiful display of chrysanthemums in his new greenhouse.

The Halton Deanery Anglican Young People's Rally was held at St. Paul's Church and Parish Hall on Sunday, Nov. 13th, starting at 2.30 p.m. The theme of the whole programme was "Let Your Light Shine." Following the registration of the many representatives present, opening devotions were conducted by the members of Grace Church A.Y.P.A., Milton. Introductory remarks concerning the nature of the rally were made by Rev. A. E. Ongley, Niagara. Discussion groups were conducted by the Rev. Homer Ferris, Milton, Rev. A. E. Ongley, Winona, Mr. Jack Patterson, Church of the Good Shepherd, St. Catharines, and Mr. Harold Baron, of St. Luke's Parish, Hamilton. At the close of the discussion a group photograph was taken.

Following the Service the Young People adjourned to the Parish Hall for a Fireside Hour under the direction of Miss Kay Donkin, Burlington. A playlet was presented by St. Luke's A.Y.P.A., Burlington, entitled "People versus Youth." The Rally closed with a Candle-light Service conducted by St. Jude's A.Y.P.A., Oakville, following which coffee and cookies were served in the Hall basement.

COUNCIL COMMENTS

by the Bystander
Whewww... never heard such a ruckus before in the Council affairs — I would much rather continue to talk about the problem of getting all of the voters to consider very seriously this matter of election by general vote, rather than by the ward system... as I already mentioned, I think it is a much more democratic method of providing Town representation on the Council... no reason why all the Councillors can't be voted for, or against, by all voters just as the Mayor, Reeve and Deputy-Reeve are — if I don't like any one of those Councillors from Ward 1, or any other for that matter, I consider I should be entitled to say so by the use of my ballot... as it is now I have no choice in saying who will represent me in two of the wards, unless... I want to go buy me some property in those wards... and I just don't have enough of the necessary to do that... From what I gather several of the present council favour the method... it won't affect them in any case since the set-up would not come into effect until the 1950 elections should it receive a favourable vote this year... think it over...

BAPTIST CHURCH HIGHLIGHTS

On Sunday morning in Georgetown Baptist Church, Rev. C. R. Gower read from Ephesians and spoke on "The War We Are Waging." Remembrance Day brings to our minds the price that has been paid in lives, he said, and the great amount of money spent on war materials. Our country is still preparing for war and after years of war for peace, strife still exists. God sent His only Son to save the world, but the world has not accepted Christ and we are continually living in fear of war. The essential work of the Christian is to put on the whole armour of God to withstand the wiles of the devil. The price of peace is the practice of Christianity.

Sunday evening, Mr. Gower spoke on "The Elder Son" in which he told of the prodigal's return home and repentance. The father welcomed him but the elder brother did not, and he compared the elder brother to the Pharisees, a self-righteous and unforgiving people. God comes out to meet the sinner as the father did his son and entreats him to come in. When we come repenting God will receive us and make us new creatures in Christ.
