PIPE BAND BRAVES SNOW FOR ENGAGEMENT

Snow storms and blocked roads aren't enough to stop Georgetown Girls Pipe Band when they are booked for an engagement. Last Thursday the band had contracted to play at the season's opening game in Collingwood Arena. In spite of threatening weather, the girls straggled out in their bus, with Doug Scott of Limehouse at the wheel. Doug's experience in driving a bulldozer for a construction company in Quebec last summer stood him in good stead as he bucked snowdrifts and icy highways to get the band safely there and home again in the "wee sma' hours." The trip, incidentally, had no effect on the excellent music dispensed by the band, for the visiting hockey team from Toronto invited them to play next Monday at a game in Nobleton Arena.

NATURE UNSPOILED

YOURS TO ENJOY

The SCREECH OWL'S name is a misnomer. He doesn't screech at all—the best he can do is a quavering whinny, which doesn't sound at all savage! He lives on mice and grasshoppers for the most part, and nests in hollow trees, particularly in old orchards. He should always be protected.
