The Bethel United Church Mr. and Mrs. Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Chamberlain, on Wednesday evening, November 30th, to take part in a demonstration put on by six members of the St. Paul's United Church Mr. and Mrs. Club. It was a good evening, enjoyed by all who came, and beginnings were made by way of getting organized. A nominating committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Len Elster, and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Shaw was appointed. Another meeting is planned for the near future.

The United Church W.A. met at the home of Mrs. J. A. M. Taylor for the Christmas meeting, and election of officers for 1950. Mrs. Fred Alnsworth gave an address on "The History of Christmas Gatherings", which was very instructive and interesting. Mrs. Stanley Learmont continues as president for another year, and Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth as secretary-treasurer. There was a sale of various articles brought by the members, and a bale was packed to be sent to the Fred Victor Mission in Toronto. A special collection was taken up for the Ontario Temperance Federation work.

Mrs. John Wilson has greatly recovered from her recent serious illness, and is very much herself again. Mrs. Fred May is in the Milton Hospital. Previously she had been confined to her home for some time. Her condition shows some improvement.

Three new houses are going up in Hornby, and one has been given a complete renovation.

Since chickens are no longer available for our smaller dogs to chase, they have taken to making the cats step around, and watch their stepping while they step.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

On the gates of a park in Scotland these words have been put up with the hope that they will encourage those who use the park to keep it clean, tidy and appealing. Scouts and Cubs would do well to read the piece with care and strive to apply it to their meeting place, homes, and town in general.

Orange peels and chocolate wrappings, Broken bottles, torn rags, Cigarettes and matches, spent, Cardboard plates and papers, rent, Tins and suchlike, odds and ends, Spoil this place for other friends, Dirt and paper in pretty places, Slam park gates in people's faces.

Let us keep our town clean by depositing refuse in the proper places.
