Wishing you all the compliments of the season.

WILLIAM MARSHALL

It is an honour to be chosen as Deputy-Reeve for Georgetown and I shall do my best to faithfully represent the electors, both in local and in county affairs.

K. R. MacDONALD

(last week)

At the Hall Board euchre and dance held on Friday evening winners were Mrs. R. Corbett and Mrs. Ellerby with consultations going to Ken McDonald and Cyril Clarke. Mr. Clarence Varey and Mrs. O. Mulder provided music and Mr. Jack Cain was floor manager.

An exchange of Christmas gifts was a feature of the Women's Institute meeting held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Benton on Thursday evening.

Douglas Scott was home from Baltimore, Ont., over the week end where he is employed at present.

The catering committee of the W.I. served chicken dinners to thirty four Georgetown Girls' softball enthusiasts on Tuesday evening.

HORNBY

The Bethel W.A. and W.M.S. groups met at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Ford for their Christmas meeting. The highlight of the WMS section of the meeting was a Candlelight Service, over which Mrs. Percy Merry presided. The rooms of the Ford home were decorated for the Christmas season and the fireplace was lighted with a pleasant fire. Four ladies took part in the lighting of the candles and the reading of the service. Christmas Carols were also sung. The president of the W.A. is Mrs. Fred Tuck, and the secretary Mrs. Wilbert Ford. Mrs. Ellison Ball remains as treasurer. Mrs. Emmerson Ford will be president of the WMS and Mrs. C. W. Simpson secretary. Mrs. John Lister is treasurer.

On Friday evening the Bethel Church folks met in the basement of their church for their Christmas Potluck Supper and Concert. There was also a bazaar table. The evening began with the supper, then there were Christmas Carols, and a program of recitations and music, followed by pictures on "The First Christmas" together with an explanation of them. Candies and oranges were given to the children, and all seemed to have a very good time.

On Tuesday, from ten in the morning till about five in the afternoon, the Halton Presbytery of the United Church of Canada met in the Orange Hall. The W.A. ladies provided an excellent dinner for them. One thing noted during the meeting was that 90 ministers and missionaries are leaving the work during 1949, while only 60 are entering. There are about 450 too few ministers in the church at present. Some students, wishing to enter college, find the cost too big a barrier.

Mr. William Alderson is at present quite seriously ill, and has been for some time.

Mrs. C. H. Turner has returned to her home on the fourth line following three months in the Milton hospital with a broken leg.

Mrs. Harold Learmont is in the Milton Hospital, having had an operation.

Mrs. Fred May's condition remain unchanged.

The Hornby United Church is much easier to heat following repairs to the windows, but a new heating system is badly needed.

Apparently trying to be the first of the season, a car edged its way off the baseline road into the ditch, on the wrong side of the road. It wasn't yours, was it?

CHECK LINE FORUM

Check Line Forum met Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Graham to join in the discussion group on "Is there a farm housing problem?" The forum thought that as a farmer's income is variable, it is impossible to set any definite amount which can be spent on improvements to the home. Suggestions for remodelling included central heating, running water, better lighting, landscaping and modern kitchens. Next week is review night and a Christmas party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. DeVries.

I wish to express my thanks to the Georgetown voters for electing me to the hydro commission. My best efforts will be used to serve you faithfully.

E. W. BINKLEY

I wish to sincerely thank those who supported me as a candidate for mayor and who worked on my behalf during the election campaign.

ALEX MACLAREN

Sincere thanks to those who voted for me in the election for reeve on Monday.

Compliments of the season to all.

JACK ARMSTRONG

My thanks are expressed to those voters who gave me their support for Deputy-Reeve in Monday's election.

Season's greetings to everyone

JAMES GOODLET

TO THE CITIZENS OF WARD 2:

I want to thank all who voted for me in Monday's election.

While I did not have the support of the majority, I accept this democratic expression of opinion, and offer my best wishes to all who are to represent us in 1950.

CECIL DAVIDSON

TO MY FEW FAITHFUL FRIENDS IN WARD 2:

Thanks a million for your loyal support.

CHARLES LEDWIDGE

TO THE CITIZENS OF WARD 3:

Please accept my thanks for your kind co-operation and votes. I am told that the rather poor showing I made, and for which I apologize, can be attributed to the fact that being employed in Toronto all winter I am not readily available if wanted. The electors of Georgetown prefer to have their representative in town and easily accessible. Well, I can't hate you for that, indeed, I think perhaps you are right.

Sincerely,
S. W. ORR

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD 3:

I extend to the many friends who voted for me and made the election contest such a close one, my sincere thanks.

ROY MAGLOUGHLIN

The support of those who voted for me as hydro commissioner on Monday is indeed appreciated. May I wish Mr. Binkley every success in his election to the office.
