"IT'S ALL OURS!" "Not even Mommy or Daddy can use plates like these," exclaimed the youngsters shown here as they examined the new children's chinaware sets that are now being introduced in dining car service of Canadian National Railway. Designed by the C.N.R., the sets are white and jonquil yellow in color and decorated with figures of children and animals. To encourage the children to eat all their food, the pictures are on the inside bottom of the plates. A set includes a fruit saucer, bread plate, soup bowl, baby's deep plate, mug, spoon and a dinner plate. With each set there is a special baby bib and children's menu.
