ST. GEORGE'S CONCERT IS WELL ATTENDED

The Sunday School room of St. George's Church was filled to capacity last Friday evening, December 16th, when the annual Sunday School Concert was held. Mr. Edwin Wilson was chairman, and first called on Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson to present the Perfect Attendance Awards.

"The Christmas Carolers" under the direction of Mrs. A. Dawson set the program off on the right note. The Beginners Class were all on stage to sing, with gestures "Away in a Manger." Then followed a group of recitations: "If I Were Twins", by Doris Chaplin; "An Ounce of Prevention" by Lynda Mino; "This Year's Request" by Ruth Hancock and "Gifts for Santa" by Lynda Raynor.

A timely playlet entitled "A Christmas Want Supplied" was enacted by the Senior Girls. Two groups of singing numbers were presented by the little Primary Girls "Little Lights for Jesus" and "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer."

"The Nativity", a pageant by the Senior Girls and Boys, enacted the story of the Christmas in a beautiful and reverent manner. The songs of the boys from Miss Eileen Prust's class were enjoyed

Albert Norton Wins Lions Prize Doll

Santa Claus distributed over a thousand bags of candy to district children when he paid his annual visit to Georgetown on Saturday under the sponsorship of the Lions Club. This year's event was the best yet and included a clown band, a comical Santa's horse and the singing of Christmas carols by young and old. After the bags were distributed—drawing for the usual lucky prizes took place, the big prize of a doll dressed in one dollar bills going to Albert Norton with ticket 2330.

Turkeys were won by Douglas Kennedy, 1064; and Mrs. Barbara Tost, 7001 and geese by Mrs. J. Henderson, 95 and Mrs. James Dickenson, 23. Chickens went to Mrs. Wray Bessey, Limehouse, 4341; J. J. Lynn, Brampton, 5101; E. R. Evans, Limehouse, 2966; A. Clark, 1484; Hodge Barnes, 1069; Mrs. Jack Fry, Jr., Glen Williams, 81; George Bick, Glen Williams, 1189; Pearl Scott, 6072; Mrs. C. Cain, Glen Williams, 109; Mrs. Jack Fry, Sr., Glen Williams, 4728.

Fred Schultz was convener of the event for the club.

by all, as was the group of recitations by the Junior Boys, as follows: "Dirty Hands," by Bobby Walker and Freddie Harrison; "Boy and His Stomach," by Robert Kidd; "Habits," by Gordon Spence; and "Pa Did It," by Tom Barber. Another singing number by the Junior Boys in costume was entitled "The Christmas Elves."

The skit in very eloquent pantomime "My Old Fiddle" drew a great many laughs from the audience, the performers seeming to enjoy it just as much.

During the lulls between numbers on the program, the audience enjoyed the singing of Christmas carols from the scene. At the conclusion of the concert, Santa Claus entered, to distribute prizes, candy and oranges to the children.

ST. JOHN'S UNITED CHURCH

Rev. John M. Smith conducted the worship in St. John's United Church on Sunday morning. The message was entitled "The Dawning" and was the second in a series of Christmas meditations. The text was read from Luke 1:78 and 79 and the Scripture Lesson read from Isaiah 59:1-10, 60:1-3. Music was provided by the choir under the able leadership of Mr. Norman Laird who is acting as temporary music director until a regular organist and choir leader have been secured.

The Sunday School held their annual White Gift Service in the church auditorium on Sunday morning. Many gifts of food, clothing, toys and money were collected and dedicated. These will be sent to the Fred Victor Mission in Toronto for distribution. The worship was conducted by the General Superintendent, Allan Prouse, and the scripture passages were read by the girls of Mrs. A. Swackhamer's class.

On Sunday evening the choir under the leadership of Mr. Norman Laird presented a Christmas Carol Service. The congregation joined in the singing of familiar carols. Less familiar carols were sung by the choir and included "Break Forth", "Lay Down Your Staffs", "As Joseph Was A-Walking", "Lullaby, Thou Little Tiny Child," and "Here a Torch Jeanette". Miss Babs Sinclair of Toronto sang the solo: "The Innkeeper's Story", and Mrs. Gordon Kidney sang "The Little Road to Bethlehem." The solo Good Christian Men Rejoice" was sung by Mr. S. T. Faram.

It was announced that a Candlelight Service would be held next Sunday evening.

Since we cannot shake each one of you by the hand to give you our best wishes personally — we want to take this opportunity to express our hopes that this Christmas and the coming New Year be one, of joy and goodness for each and every one of you — our friends and patrons.
