THE MIXING BOWL

It is easy to make a unique festive setting in your home these days with such variety of choice in wreaths, flowers, balls, bells, Santa Clauses, reindeer, sleighs, Christmas trees, church and snow scenes. It is wise to select one theme and one centre of attraction for a special decoration. It may be that your buffet is the centre. If so, the outline of a landscape may be sketched on the mirror with soft soap, then on the counter place a model of a church, or a skating scene may be designed, using your table mirror, cotton batten, imitation snow and driftwood branches, further decorated with miniature gidgets.

AT ESQUESING COUNCIL ON THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15th

No action was taken on a letter from Nassagaweya Council enclosing a resolution passed by them. That township has petitioned the Dept. of Highways to construct a highway through the township running from Huttonville across Esquesing.

For a children's Christmas party setting, use a Santa Claus paper tablecloth and over it place a clear plastic cover. In the centre, mold together a big Santa Claus head, using buttons for eyes, nose and mouth and don't forget to rouge his cheeks. Of course you will need a piece of cone-shaped cellophane for his toque. To distribute the candles evenly at the table, we suggest Dixie cups with a tiny Santa Claus standing over each and you can ration out 3 or 4 small candles per Dixie cup.

HOLY CROSS SOCIAL HELD ON MONDAY

The annual Christmas fowl social of Holy Cross Church took the form of a bingo party in the church basement Monday night. There was a large attendance and the door prize was won by Mrs. C. Renwick with ticket 114. Special prizes of large chickens were won by Mrs. Alice Collier, Mrs. J. E. Dorsey and Mrs. Clem Dwyer. Mrs. Frank King and Mrs. Wilbert Bradley won two chickens each in the games and other chickens went to Mrs. Fred Broomhead, Mrs. Matt Lawr, Danny Boyle, Mrs. Fry, Tom Herbert, Mrs. Frank Golden, E. B. Tyers, Mrs. Charles Day, Cedric Cross, Mrs. Bernard Armstrong and William Hillier.
