SLIDING ALONG THE BOARDS
 by Diner

We wish you Greetings, salutes and all the rest of the baloney that goes with the New Year. Like everyone, we like to start the new year right so we'll not keep you in suspense about the identity of "Diner." When we were approached by Steamer after taking over this column, it started us thinking (Yes, we do a little thinking now and then). Were we prepared to have some irritated fan give us the once-over, or even have Madeline Gun Kelly fill us full of holes? Then it dawned on us to use some nickname nobody knew and we'd be safe. Well, after a few weeks in hiding and a trip to the city to get a bullet-proof vest, black jack, revolver, knives and bodyguards, we feel safe in divulging the name. By checking birth records, we find our name to be William Gordon Barry, known as Bill. Of course some people have other names for us, but sorry to say they can't be printed. The handle of "Diner" reverts back to my father's childhood when he used to collect frogs legs to sell to the dining car that passed through town. It followed him down, through the years and was finally tacked on me. I've never sold frogs legs, but it might not be a bad idea. Enough about spurs truly, let's get back to work.

After missing a column last week for reasons beyond our control, we find a lot of hockey has taken place in Intermediate and Junior ranks. Checking the Raiders schedule we find they have played four games since December 20th, winning two, losing one and tying the other. To date this gives them 6 wins, three ties, and three losses, for a total of 17 points, putting them in second place after Weston.

Going back to the first of these late December games, Oakville and Raiders played a thrilling 4-3 tie, an extremely fast game in the first half. We drubbed Brampton 9-3, Junior and Del Beaumont collecting three pieces, and Feza, Chappel and Scott scoring the other three. The next game played was a clash between the two top teams, Weston and Georgetown. They had played twice before and Raiders had dropped them both. This was a chance for revenge and brother, they laid it. Raiders came from behind a 3-0 lead in the first to tie the game in the last stanza and rapped home two in overtime to win the game 9-7. How Kenny Nash can move so fast and cover so much territory at one time only Einstein could figure out.

Tuesday night saw our Raiders in Weston and they came home with a 7-1 defeat. This was their first defeat in the last seven starts which is good hockey in any man's language. The game appeared slow though both games at placed their passing ability to extremes. Weston opened in the first, Gallagher scoring on a pass from Stevenson and Florian. Weston had four penalties and Raiders one. Weston scored two quick ones in the second and Max Bradbury tallied for Georgetown on a pass from brother Leigh. This ended the scoring. Weston got eight of the twelve penalties in the game. Chappel and Dwyer played bang-up hockey for Raiders.

The Junior Raiders ended their exhibition schedule last week by trouncing Acton 7-5 for the second time. This gave them a total of nine points to finish on top of their group. The junior OHA schedule starts this week, Aurora visiting here tonight (Wednesday) and playing host to Georgetown tomorrow night. The juniors are decked out in their new sweaters and they have a good club so let's see some crowds out for the games.

Monday night found the Industrial league hot and heavy at it. Norval won over Meadowglen in the first game. Smith and Stone beat Provincial and Businessmen won from Alliance. This put Businessmen in first place.

We would like to wish our good friend and ardent hockey supporter, Mrs. Jack Harrison, our very best for a quick recovery on the road back to health. We hope it won't be long before you are back in your corner cheering the team on to victory as you so often have.
 Cheerio for the time being. We'll be back next week, same time, same place, with the same old baloney.

STEWARTTOWN GROUP GOES CAROL SINGING
 On Friday evening, December 23rd, members of Stewarttown AYPA went around the village singing carols outside the houses, after which a social hour was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris.
 A boyling party was enjoyed by members on December 28th at the Lucky Strike Club. Next Friday the regular meeting will be held in the schoolhouse with the program in charge of the executive.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT AT UNITED CHURCH

Santa Claus had his usual enthusiastic reception when the annual Sunday School concert of Georgetown United Church was held a few nights before Christmas. Alan Brouse, superintendent of the Sunday School, was chairman for the program which included members by the various classes. Pupils of Mrs. Mildred Armann and Mrs. Jack Bailey Jr. presented a pantomime and there were recitations by Marilyn Armann, John Scott, David Kenner and Tommy Marshall and a recitation by Jim Kagle. The girls of Cedarvale School sang two choruses and the boys of Mr. Howard Wrigglesworth's class presented a gymnastic display. Due to the illness of a member of the cast, the girls of Isabel Dobson's class could not present their play and they sang Christmas carols instead. Mr. and Mrs. Vern McCumber directed a play in which members of the classes of Frances Deans and Elmer McCumber took part.
